John P. Wiczorek,2021-11-08 Interest in Johannes Bobrowski 1917 1965 has suffered from an impression of the complexity of his works and of the narrowness of his focus on The Germans and their Eastern European neighbours The current study re-examines aspects of Bobrowski's Sarmatian works especially their chronological development but places them within the wider context of the whole of his oeuvre It looks at the long period of development before he discovered his theme in the early 1950s and examines his development after Sarmatische Zeit and Schattenland Str me seeing the volume Wetterzeichen as moving increasingly away from the past and towards more contemporary issues His short stories and novels are related to the issues confronting him in East Germany and develop increasingly into responses to immediate poetic and social problems Far from being a remote and backward orientated Sarmatian Bobrowski emerges as a writer attempting to communicate with a society which he felt threatened to ignore basic human needs and aspirations The study makes use of material from Bobrowski's Nachla to present a figure looking for and offering patterns for orientation in his East German society but with renewed relevance for post unification Germany Arrival Nick Mount,2017-09-02 The most important book to be written in more than 40 years about the rise of Canadian literature Arrival The Story of CanLit brims and crackles in equal measure with information and energy Winnipeg Free Press A Globe and Mail Top 100 Book National Post 99 Best Books of the Year In the mid twentieth century Canadian literature transformed from a largely ignored trickle of books into an enormous cultural phenomenon that produced Margaret Atwood Alice Munro Michael Ondaatje Mordecai Richler and so many others In Arrival acclaimed writer and critic Nick Mount answers the question What caused the CanLit Boom Written with wit and panache Arrival tells the story of Canada's literary awakening Interwoven with Mount's vivid tale are enlightening mini biographies of the people who made it happen from superstars Leonard Cohen and Marie Claire Blais to lesser known lights like the troubled and impassioned Harold Sonny Ladoo The full range of Canada's literary boom is here the underground exploits of the blew ointment and Tish gangs revolutionary critical forays by highbrow academics the blunt force trauma of our plain spoken backwoods poetry and the urgent political writing that erupted from the turmoil in Quebec Originally published to coincide with the 150th anniversary of Canadian Confederation Arrival is a dazzling variegated and inspired piece of writing that helps explain how we got from there to here Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1960 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards Homeric Contexts Franco Montanari,Antonios Rengakos,Christos C. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets One Giant Leap Charles Fishman,2020-09-22 The New York Times bestselling meticulously researched and absorbingly written The Washington Post story of the trailblazers and the ordinary Americans on the front lines of the epic Apollo 11 moon mission President John F Kennedy astonished the world on May 25 1961 when he announced to Congress that the United States should land a man on the Moon by 1970 No group was more surprised than the scientists and engineers at NASA who suddenly had less than a decade to invent space travel When Kennedy announced that goal no one knew how to navigate to the Moon No one knew how to build a rocket big enough to reach the Moon or how to build a computer small enough and powerful enough to fly a spaceship there No one knew what the surface of the Moon was like or what astronauts could eat as they flew there On the day of Kennedy s historic speech America had a total of fifteen minutes of spaceflight experience with just five of those minutes outside the atmosphere Russian dogs had more time in space than US astronauts Over the next decade more than 400 000 scientists engineers and factory workers would send twenty four astronauts to the Moon Each hour of space flight would require one million hours of work back on Earth to get America to the Moon on July 20 1969 A veteran space reporter with a vibrant touch nearly every sentence has a fact an insight a colorful quote or part of a piquant anecdote The Wall Street Journal and in One Giant Leap Fishman has written the sweeping definitive behind the scenes account of the furious race to complete one of mankind's greatest achievements It's a story filled with surprises from the item the astronauts almost forgot to take with them the American flag to the extraordinary impact Apollo would have back on Earth and on the way we live today From the research labs of MIT where the eccentric and legendary pioneer Charles Draper created the tools to fly the Apollo spaceships to the factories where dozens of women sewed spacesuits parachutes and even computer hardware by hand Fishman captures the exceptional feats of these ordinary Americans It's been 50 years since Neil Armstrong took that one small step Fishman explains in dazzling form just how unbelievable it actually was Newsweek The Budget of the United States Government United States.
