2020 Michel Houellebecq, 2022-03-02 The death of God in the West was the prelude to a metaphysical soap opera that continues to this day Christianity's masterstroke was to combine a fierce belief in the individual with the promise of eternal participation in the Absolute When that dream evaporated various attempts were made to offer the individual a minimum of being The latest of these attempts is advertising which seeks to arouse desire and transform the subject into a docile phantom doomed to follow advertising's every whim But like all previous attempts this superficial participation in the world fails and unhappiness and depression continue to spread We can all produce a cold revolution in ourselves however by stepping outside the flow of information and advertising We need to take some time out unplug the television turn off our smartphones stop buying stuff and adopt an aesthetic attitude to the world We just need to stay still for a few seconds This is one of the key themes developed by Michel Houellebecq in this collection of his texts and interviews from the last three decades Here he explains and elaborates his point of view discusses his novels and addresses a wide range of topics from politics religion and literature to suicide euthanasia and paedophilia An indispensable book for anyone interested in the work of one of the most widely read and controversial novelists of our time Serpent's Egg R. A. Lafferty, 2016-01-29 It was the End of Summer of the year 2035 The Global Village that was the World was ruled by a Kangaroo Court of Compassionate Aldermen who ordered assassinations when it was deemed to be for the common good As a sign of their openness they were always experimenting to find new ways of looking at the World Most of these experiments would fail some of them would succeed to an extent and others would succeed only too well and so would have to be crushed in the shell for the good of the World The Lynn Randal Experiment raised three children together almost from infancy Of these three Lord Randal was human though somewhat enhanced and tampered with Axel belonged to the gargoyle faced Golden People God believes they are the most beautiful creatures he ever made a theologian said and there will be hell to pay when he finds out that we don't agree And the third child was Inneal who often elicited the comment she's really something different isn't she Yes she was All of these were super mega persons which meant that they might be able to change the world itself But why did they begin to change the Ocean first When these three were just short of ten years old they were merged with children of three other experiments and formed with them a Magic Dozen Immediately they began to have an astonishing effect on the World And the fate of the children themselves hung in the balance Was the experiment too successful Was their effect on the World too dangerous Would their group be as other groups had been adjudged to be a Serpent s Egg that had to be crushed in the shell for the good of the world The Three Days of Summerset the End of Summer would give the answer Aurelia R. Enjoying the Song of Term: An Emotional Symphony within Arrive At Easterwine The Autobiography

In a world taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the written term frequently diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Arrive At Easterwine The Autobiography a marvelous literary prize overflowing with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful composer of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this poignant examination, we shall explore the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
