London from the site's humble beginnings as college playing fields to its present status as one of the most recognisable pieces of football real estate in the world. The book highlights how pioneering architects such as Archibald Leitch, Claude Waterlow, Ferrier and William Binnie played a vital role in shaping Highbury and how other personalities including Sir Henry Norris, A. G. Kearney, Herbert Chapman and David Dein have influenced its development. Highbury documents the important role and influence of the Football League Premiership, FA Cup and European competitions in the ground's colourful history and in addition details the England internationals, representative encounters, FA Cup semi-finals and European play-offs which have taken place there as well as the legendary Cooper v. Clay World Championship bout of 1966. Featuring many personal photographs by the author and others from the archives, Highbury is a timely tribute to an iconic structure that was part of the fabric of sporting history for almost a century.

Shall We Play That One Together? Paul de Barros, 2024-09-10. The life of the unparalleled purveyor of the Great American Songbook, Marian McPartland, is celebrated in this engrossing biography. From Bobby Short to Esperanza Spalding across the 33-year run of the acclaimed radio show Piano Jazz, Marian McPartland conversed and played piano duets with jazz greats and via National Public Radio syndication brought the best of jazz standards to listeners. In Shall We Play That One Together? Paul de Barros considers McPartland's full life and shows her to have been a courageous compositional innovator as well as an immensely talented popularizer and educator. Her standing among jazz artists and her advocacy for women jazz musicians made McPartland a natural to host Piano Jazz, show conceived in 1978 and first broadcast on WLTR out of Columbia, South Carolina, in 1979. That show secured her reputation in the musical form and allowed her to introduce American and then global audiences to a diverse array of musicians developing the Great American Songbook.

Playing Extra Time Alan Ball, 2005. The autobiography of a legendary figure in football and an inspirational story with wide appeal. Alan Ball always wanted to be the best. Small in stature, red-haired and fiery, Alan was one of the most recognisable players of his generation. Fans on the terraces and team mates immediately took to his wholehearted enthusiasm and never-say-die attitude. Alan is a fighter from overcoming his diminutive size to become a professional player and the youngest member of the 1966 England squad to the rejection he repeatedly faced as a club manager. In 2004, Alan faced the toughest battle of his life. His wife Lesley lost her fight with cancer. From the moment their daughter was diagnosed to the shocking realisation that Lesley also had the disease, Alan learnt to cope in the face of insurmountable odds. His hugely successful playing and managerial career that took him to Everton, Arsenal, Manchester City and two World Cups with England took a back seat to the real test of character brought about by the illness of his loved ones. Now Alan is learning to live life without his beloved Lesley while continuing to support his daughter whose cancer is in remission. I have never stopped fighting but now I am on a different playing field; this has been the biggest fight of my life. This is an autobiography that transcends football; a story that is both inspirational and deeply moving.
