Art And The Creative Unconscious:

Art And The Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 2013-09-05 This is Volume VI of twelve in the Analytical Psychology Series Originally published in 1959 this is a collection of four essays on art and the creative unconscious three of which are translations of Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 2026-01-20 A landmark account of how artistic expression arises from the collective unconscious This book brings together four essays by analytical psychologist Erich Neumann who explores the connections between creativity and the unconscious mind The archetypes of the collective unconscious he argues are intrinsically formless psychic components that take form in art The psychology of the individual in whom they appear the mediums of expression through which they pass and the time and place in which they occur mold their varying forms Neumann illustrates his theme in the first essay Leonardo da Vinci and the Mother Archetype in which he shows how the work of art and art itself were for Leonardo not ends in themselves but rather instruments and expressions of his inner life He follows with Art and Time A Note on Marc Chagall and Creative Man and Transformation Neumann sees the artist as a hero in isolation a tragically lonely figure whose mission is often to oppose the cultural canon of the age He demonstrates how the problem of form in modern art is linked to the chaos of the modern world and a fundamental change in how the individual seeks a life of dignity Art and the creative unconscious Erich Neumann, 1969 Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 1959 Art and the creative unconscious Erich Neumann, 1959 ...Art and the creative unconscious; four essays; tr Erich Neumann, The Creative Unconscious Hanns Sachs, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1942 edition Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann (Psychologue, Allemagne, Israël), 1959 Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 1971-04-21 Four essays on the psychological aspects of art A study of Leonardo treats the work of art and art itself not as ends in themselves but rather as instruments of the artist's inner situation Two other essays discuss the relation of art to its epoch and specifically the relation of modern art to our own time An essay on Chagall views this artist in the context of the problems explored in the other studies The Essays of Erich Neumann Erich Neumann, 1959 Four essays on the psychological aspects of art A study of Leonardo treats the work of art and art itself not as ends in themselves but rather as instruments of the artist's inner situation Two other essays discuss the relation of art to its epoch and specifically the relation of modern art to our own time An essay on Chagall views this artist in the context of the problems explored in the other studies The Creative Unconscious Hanns Sachs, 2008-06-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work The Unconscious Roots of Creativity Kathryn Madden, 2016-10-27 From whence spring the sparks of creativity It is to this very question that the field of depth psychology especially that of C G Jung and his intellectual descendants has much to contribute Just as the Muses were the offspring of Mnemosyne the goddess of memory our memories are the ancestors of our creativity that finds its multifaceted expression in the written word image theater dance and music The Unconscious Roots of Creativity seeks to push the investigation into that domain of memory that is beyond our conscious reach With articles from 16 contributors the red thread running through each of the offerings in this volume is that whatever its ultimate expression the creative impulse has its roots deep in the psyche Edited By Kathryn Madden with articles by Linda Carter Anna Maria Costantino Carol Thayer Cox Leonard Cruz Lisa Raye Garlock James Hollis Naomi Ruth Lowinsky Ian Livingston Kathryn Madden Jordan S Potash Susan Rowland Murray Stein Ann Ulanov Tjeu van den Berk Robin van Loben Sels and Heidi S Volf Kunst und Schöpferisches Unbewusstes. Art and the Creative Unconscious. Four Essays. Translated ... by Ralph Manheim. A Revised and Expanded Version of the Original German Text. With Plates. Erich Neumann, Ralph Manheim, 1959 Creativity, Madness and Civilisation Richard Pine, 2021-04-16 What is creativity And what is madness How far can we interpret an artist's work through our knowledge of his or her mental state and how far can we infer a mental state from a work of art When does a work of art cease to be a personal statement by the artist and become a matter of public concern The contributions to this book attempt to answer some of these questions They come from a wide range of disciplines and experiences a practising psychiatrist a practising artist suffering from reactive depression and critics working in literature film music and the visual arts The essays include discussions of the myth of creativity the music of Robert Schumann the borders of sanity in the writing of Lawrence Durrell the insane truth of Virginia Woolf the meeting of doctor and patient in the poetry of Anne Sexton mood disorders in the fiction of David Foster Wallace love and madness in the poetry of Hafiz of Shiraz and the paintings of Adolf W lfl Central to this discussion of creativity madness and civilisation is the difficulty of establishing an appropriate and effective vocabulary and mindset between critics and clinical psychiatrists which would enable them to work together in understanding mental disturbance in creative artists On Creativity and the Unconscious Sigmund Freud, 1962

Artistic Individuality: A Study of Selected 20th Century Artist's Novels. Zivile Gimbutas, 2012-09-21 In this study of a series of artist novels individuality is elucidated by childhood experiences sensuality and receptivity the urge for self expression relation to nature and creative work Individuality is essentially the recognition of one's self as a unique part of a whole which is apt to be discovered in kinship with nature and expressed in aesthetics that stem from an appreciation of nature The featured novels are Willa Cather's The Song of the Lark M Allen Cunningham's Lost Son James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man W Somerset Maugham's The Moon and Sixpence Dodie Smith's I Capture the Castle John Updike's Seek My Face and Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse Encyclopedia of Creativity Mark A. Runco, Steven R. Pritzker, 1999-08-02 This encyclopaedia provides specific information and guidance for everyone who is searching for greater understanding and inspiration Subjects include theories of creativity techniques for enhancing creativity individuals who have made contributions to creativity Form, Content, and Power Eric v.d. Luft, 2024-08-02 This book is meant to be disconcerting It asks many more questions than it answers but perhaps that is how philosophy should be especially if the questions posed are capable of rousing interest in a topic and stimulating individual thought It challenges sometimes attacks and even ridicules various traditions and theoretical positions in the history of the philosophy of art not for merely destructive or polemical purposes but rather to encourage insightful readers to proceed beyond these positions in their own minds Its arguments are not didactic and its conclusions are not dogmatic but evocative and provisional in the hope that its readers will confront them with a vigor at least equal to that with which these arguments and conclusions have already confronted the traditional opinions Its general aims are 1 to try to answer the basic questions What is art and What is good art and 2 to try to develop a unified theory of art i e a theory which would embrace and be equally applicable to all types and media of art from architecture to rock songs from symphonies to sculpture from Shakespeare to street graffiti Toward this second aim it examines the traditional concept of beauty and finds it incoherent undefinable philosophically unsatisfactory and incapable of serving as the ground of any rigorous unified theory of art because it cannot without equivocation be made equally applicable to all sorts of art Thus instead of beauty it proposes the concept of power which can be clearly and precisely defined and which is not only universally and univocally applicable but also rich enough as a concept to be able to shed light on the whole idea of art It is not a difficult book It is written for people at all levels of erudition from college frosh to tenured professors It does not aim primarily toward any level and tries not to pander but presents interpretations within the philosophy of art which should be both sufficiently original to provide grist for the professors speculative mills and at the same time sufficiently lucid for beginning students to be able to grasp the main ideas In short the book aims to become both a course textbook and a work which will be discussed at scholarly conferences and written about in journal articles At least with regard to this twofold aim to be simultaneously intelligible to tyros and interesting to experts and its consequent claim to a broad audience it is akin to such works as John Dewey s Art as Experience Robin Collingwood s The Principles of Art or Susanne Langer s Philosophy in a New Key Destruction and Creation Mary Ann Mattoon, 1999 The 14th Congress for Analytical Psychology was held 23-28 August 1998 in the ancient city of Florence Italy The theme Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformations is especially appropriate to the Italian setting with that nation s history of destruction both from nature and from human activity and its tradition especially in Florence of creative individuals and institutions The theme is fitting also to the context of Jungian psychology with its emphasis on these and other pairs of opposites with their integral role in psychic wholeness Acknowledging also that destruction is indispensable to creation some Jungians prefer the term creative unconscious to the traditional collective unconscious
