Impossible Presence Terry E. Smith, 2001-09-15 Impossible Presence brings together new work in film studies critical theory art history and anthropology for a multifaceted exploration of the continuing proliferation of visual images in the modern era It also asks what this proliferation and the changing technologies that support it mean for the ways in which images are read today and how they communicate with viewers and spectators Framed by Terry Smith's introduction the essays focus on two kinds of strangeness involved in experiencing visual images in the modern era The first explored in the book's first half involves the appearance of oddities or phantasmagoria in early photographs and cinema The second type of strangeness involves art from marginalized groups and indigenous peoples and the communicative formations that result from the trafficking of images between people from vastly different cultures With a stellar list of contributors Impossible Presence offers a wide ranging look at the fate of the visual image in modernity modern art and popular culture Contributors Jean Baudrillard Marshall Berman Jeremy Gilbert Rolfe Elizabeth Grosz Tom Gunning Peter Hutchings Fred R Myers Javier Sanjines Richard Shiff Hugh J Silverman Terry Smith

Achieving Creative Justice in the U.S. Creative Sector Antonio C. Cuyler, 2025-05-02 Caste and the discrimination exclusion marginalization othering oppression subalterning and subjugation that it produces continue to challenge creative industries compromising culture's verisimilitude as a public good Achieving Creative Justice in the U.S. Creative Sector explores the relationships between access diversity equity and inclusion ADEI and creative justice in the U.S. creative sector as a solution to meaningfully address enduring creative injustices Whether it's the BlackLivesMatter LandBack or MeToo movements caste remains structurally and systemically built into U.S. Society and thereby the creative sector Acknowledging this realization after George Floyd's murder in 2020 has galvanized a quest for solutions This book encourages sincere consideration for the human toll of insisting on artistic excellence and artistic merit at the expense of profound and unnecessary identity based human suffering Providing a practical guide on how to activate ADEI to achieve creative justice and a research agenda this book is an essential reading for practitioners and scholars who feel compelled to address creative injustices that constrain the creative flourishing of historically and continuously low casted peoples throughout the entire cultural ecosystem that defines the U.S. creative sector The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Global Art, Culture, and Media Perspectives Hemanth Pawar, 2025-02-20 Global Art Culture and Media Perspectives offers a comprehensive exploration of the intricate relationships between art culture and media in our interconnected world We delve into the profound impact of globalization on creative expressions cultural identities and media landscapes Beginning with an examination of the historical and theoretical foundations of globalization we explore how it has transformed the production distribution and consumption of art culture and media Through diverse case studies and theoretical frameworks we provide insights into the complexities of cultural exchange hybridization and resistance in the contemporary global context We critically engage with contemporary artworks cultural phenomena and media artifacts to uncover the diverse manifestations of global cultural production and consumption From international art biennials to transnational media conglomerates we highlight how individuals and communities navigate cultural differences today We address the power dynamics in global cultural flows including cultural imperialism hegemony and appropriation advocating for a more inclusive and equitable approach to cultural exchange Examples of cultural activism grassroots media initiatives and collaborative artistic projects demonstrate how art culture and media foster cross cultural dialogue and solidarity Accessible yet intellectually rigorous this book is essential for anyone interested in creativity communication and globalization Art, Culture, & Education Karel Rose, Joe L. Kincheloe, 2003

Annotation This book asks serious aesthetic and cultural questions about art and teaching In this context the authors explore the power of art to shape both our emotions and our intellect With these ideas in mind the authors explore a course the team taught on High and Low Art Good and Bad Taste As the course began the Sensation controversy at the Brooklyn Museum broke out The authors trace both how the controversy shaped their course and its implications for the larger concerns with art culture and education in the twenty first century Challenging Identities Peter Madsen, 2016-08-12 Identity is a keyword in a number of academic fields as well as in public debate and in politics During the last decades references to identity have proliferated yet there is no simple definition available that corresponds to the use of the notion in all contexts The significance of the notion depends on the conceptual or ideological constellation in which it takes part This volume on one hand demonstrates the role of notions of identity in a variety of European contexts and on the other hand highlights how there may be reasons to challenge the use of the term and corresponding social cultural and political practices Notions of national identity and national politics are challenged by European integration as well as by the increasing demographic heterogeneity due to migration and migrants experience conflicts of identification stemming from clashes between cultural heritage and the cultures of the new habitat European horizons frames of mind historical memories and expectations at the level of groups or communities at the national level and at the general European level are at odds Analyzing a series of issues in European countries from Turkey to Spain and from Scandinavia to the Balkans the contributions demonstrate uses and abuses of the notion of identity The Insubordination of Signs Nelly Richard, 2004-03-23 Theorizes the cultural reactions particularly those within the world of the visual arts literature and social science to the oppression of dictatorship

Economies of Representation, 1790-2000 Leigh Dale, Helen Gilbert, 2007 This volume documents the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation Examining trade in commodities as diverse as illicit drugs liquor bananas disease tourism adventure fiction and modern aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the contributors contest the view of trade as an equaliser of cultures places and peoples promoted by some modern economists demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences of power The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism Maria Rovisco, Magdalena Nowicka, 2016-04-01 The study of Cosmopolitanism has been transformed in the last 20 years and the subject itself has become highly discussed across the social sciences and the humanities The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism pursues distinct theoretical orientations and empirical analyses bringing together mainstream discussions with the newest thinking and developments on the main themes debates and controversies surrounding the subject The contributions are grouped into three parts each reflecting a different analytical focus within a variety of intellectual disciplines and methodological approaches Part I Cultural Cosmopolitanism is primarily concerned with the empirically grounded aspects of cosmopolitanism which are apparent in mundane practices and lifestyle options on the micro scale of daily interactions It focuses on the outlooks and lived experience of ordinary individuals and groups in concrete situational contexts and social structures Part II Political Cosmopolitanism sets out the main topics and issues dealt with by scholars writing within the tradition of political cosmopolitanism Addressing timely issues such as human rights global justice and global democracy it focuses on Cosmopolitanism as an ethico political ideal and a political project to devise new forms of supranational and transnational governance Part III Debates reflects the major debates and controversies on the subject and deliberately eschews any bland consensus to instead foreground the key arguments and lively intellectual discussions in play across disciplinary divisions Featuring contributions from key thinkers in the field including Ulrich Beck David Held and Martha Nussbaum this comprehensive volume will be a valuable resource for all academics and students working within this area of study

Managing Cultural Diversity Heijden B. van der, 2011 Looks at the way teams work how people managed in organizations and how it can understand the impact of organizational and national cultures Includes a range of topics including team dynamics managing human resources and managing
