The Arrival of the Fittest Jim Endersby,2025-01-06 In the early twentieth century varied audiences took biology out of the hands of specialists and transformed it into mass culture transforming our understanding of heredity in the process In the early twentieth century communities made creative use of the new theories of heredity in circulation at the time including the now largely forgotten mutation theory of Hugo de Vries Science fiction writers socialists feminists and utopians are among those who seized on the amazing possibilities of rapid and potentially controllable evolution De Vries's highly respected scientific theory only briefly captured the attention of the scientific community but its many fans appropriated it for their own wildly imaginative ends Writers from H G Wells and Edith Wharton to Charlotte Perkins Gilman J B S Haldane and Aldous Huxley created a new kind of imaginary future which Jim Endersby calls the biotopia It took the ambiguous possibilities of biology utopian and dystopian and reimagined them in ways that still influence the public s understanding of the life sciences The Arrival of the Fittest recovers the fascinating long forgotten origins of ideas that have informed works of fiction from Brave New World to the X Men movies all while reflecting on the lessons positive and negative that this period might offer us

Always Becoming, Never Arriving David J. Mulder, 2024-12-19 Does Jesus care how I arrange the desks in my classroom How I evaluate student work The way I interact with students and colleagues What if all these small moment by moment classroom decisions a Christian teacher makes are actually the evidence of living discipleship Teaching Christianly does not just happen it is the result of deliberate choices to work toward shrinking the gap between what we say we believe and what we actually do in our teaching This book is an exploration of the teaching profession through the lens of living out our calling through teaching as discipleship Whether you are new to the profession or a seasoned veteran you will find ideas to expand your imagination about what teaching Christianly looks like considering topics that run the range from professionalism and ethics to a biblical view of learners and learning to content knowledge and curriculum to planning instruction and assessment Teaching Christianly is a journey a process of growing as a more faithful disciple and more closely following Jesus day by day Learning to teach Christianly is an adventure of always becoming and never arriving until that day when we meet the Lord face to face Welcome to the adventure

Reflective Practice in Teaching Gretchen Geng, Pamela Smith, Paul Black, Yoshi Budd, Leigh Disney, 2019-07-17 This book investigates the ways in which pre service teachers develop and articulate their professional knowledge by presenting their reflections on contemporary issues and topics they have explored during their own teaching practicums It uses reflective practice to connect pre service teachers personal backgrounds with their placement experience concerning a self selected topic including teacher educators reflections on the pre service teachers reports on these placement topics By illustrating the broad range of issues encountered by pre service teachers sharing multiple perspectives on the complexity of classroom practice and demonstrating the importance of reflective practice it also provides a valuable mentoring framework Moreover the book studies how examining pre service teachers life experience can facilitate in depth understanding specifically in the context of pre service teachers reflections on their own practices in different educational settings In short the book helps current and prospective pre service teachers and teacher educators get to know their students and themselves better using reflective practice
