Arrowheads And Spear Points In The Prehistoric Southeast A Guide To Understanding Cultural Artifacts:

Arrowheads and Spear Points in the Prehistoric Southeast Linda Crawford Culberson, 2009-11-12 The Native American tribes of what is now the southeastern United States left intriguing relics of their ancient cultural life Arrowheads spear points stone tools and other artifacts are found in newly plowed fields on hillsides after a fresh rain or in washed out creek beds These are tangible clues to the anthropology of the Paleo Indians and the highly developed Mississippian peoples This indispensable guide to identifying and understanding such finds is for conscientious amateur archeologists who make their discoveries in surface terrain Many are eager to understand the culture that produced the artifact what kind of people created it how it was made how old it is and what its purpose was Here is a handbook that seeks identification through the clues of cultural history In discussing materials used the process of manufacture and the relationship between the artifacts and the environments it reveals ancient discoveries to be not merely interesting trinkets but by products from the once vital societies in areas that are now Alabama Arkansas Georgia Kentucky Louisiana Mississippi the Carolinas as well as in southeastern Texas southern Missouri southern Illinois and southern Indiana The text is documented by more than a hundred drawings in the actual size of the artifacts as well as by a glossary of archeological terms and a helpful list of state and regional archeological societies

North American Projectile Points Wm Jack Hranicky RPA, 2011-06-09 This book provides a single source for projectile points in the literature of American archeology Its purpose is to provide a quick lookup for point types the user then utilizes the basic references that are provided for more research information point comparisons data distributions etc
