engages with a second issue that cannot be separated from the first This is the question of what the role and purpose of art is in society This has become particularly important since the 1990s because of the social turn in art in which it is claimed that the only valid role for art was one that had explicit social consequences This book argues that a political role for art is valuable but not the only one that can be envisaged nor indeed is it the most obvious or most important Art has other social roles both as a means to engender empathy and community and to re enchant a world bereft of meaning and reduced to material values The book will appeal to practising artists as well as scholars working in art history philosophy aesthetics and curatorial studies

Tomaselli,2025-06-30 This book brings together a selection of articles that have been published throughout a series of special issues of the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies that originally focused on the so called ethnographic turn in contemporary arts An increasing wave of art events has occurred since the 1990s that have displayed significant similarities with anthropology and ethnography in their theorizations of cultural difference and representational practices The aim of these works was to revisit the ethnographic turn in contemporary art by bringing together contributions from theorists artists and critics to engage critically with the ethnographic perspective in their work This focus on the ethnographic turn has been expanded in subsequent special issues to explore how culture and society can be critically explored and challenged through the detour of art how contemporary art practices engage with participation interaction and technology in an increasingly digital screen culture and what the role can be of critical art to conceptualize contest and or develop an engaged and critical pedagogy This collection aims to re expose the special issues to an international audience by presenting a non exhaustive selection of articles that exemplify the different perspectives and discussions that are tackled throughout It starts with three of the introductory articles that have attracted large readerships and that give a detailed introduction for the special issues The compilation ends with three so called Vignettes these are short statements and reflections by artists about their practice which are an important feature of the special issues Exhibiting Craft and Design Alla Myzelev, 2017-06-14 Exhibiting Craft and Design Transgressing the White Cube Paradigm investigates the firmly established manner in which craft and design have typically been presented by museums and galleries what strategies curators have employed throughout the twentieth century and especially in more recent years how exhibiting design and craft objects challenges the notion of the modernist White Cube display paradigm Collaborative Praxis and Contemporary Art Experiments in the MENASA Region Atteqa Ali, 2020-10-30 This book examines the ways in which artists and arts organizations today forge collaborative socially engaged situations that involve non professionals in the process of making art often over a period of time through creating opportunities to examine collective concerns and needs Collaborative art praxis is gaining prominence in the Middle East North Africa and South Asia MENASA region This is a discursive method that is experimental with results that often expand the notions of what art is and how it can be produced After an introduction to global approaches to such a practice Ali examines the foundation of contemporary art in the MENASA that is linked to a longer history of colonialism The book analyzes artist led initiatives and community based organizations through themes including relational aesthetics war and violence blight in marginalized places around the world in addition to questions associated with art and its value in the fields of global contemporary art and society

Globalization and Contemporary Art Jonathan Harris, 2011-03-31 In a series of newly commissioned essays by both established and emerging scholars Globalization and Contemporary Art probes the effects of internationalist culture and politics on art across a variety of media Globalization and Contemporary Art is the first anthology to consider the role and impact of art and artist in an increasingly borderless world First major anthology of essays concerned with the impact of globalization on contemporary art Extensive bibliography and a full index designed to enable the reader to broaden knowledge of art and its relationship to globalization Unique analysis of the contemporary art market and its operation in a globalized economy Screen Ecologies Larissa Hjorth, Sarah Pink, Kristen Sharp, Linda Williams, 2016-05-13 How new media and visual artists provide alternative ways for understanding and visualizing the entanglements of media and the environment in the Asia Pacific Images of environmental disaster and degradation have become part of our everyday media diet This visual culture focusing on environmental deterioration represents a wider recognition of the political economic and cultural forces that are responsible for our ongoing environmental crisis And yet efforts to raise awareness about environmental issues through digital and visual media are riddled with irony because the resource extraction manufacturing transportation and waste associated with digital devices contribute to environmental damage and climate change Screen Ecologies examines the relationship of media art and climate change in the Asia Pacific region a key site of both environmental degradation and the production and consumption of climate aware screen art and media Screen Ecologies shows how new media and visual artists provide alternative ways for understanding the entanglements of media and the environment in the Asia Pacific It investigates such topics as artists exploration of alternative ways to represent the environment regional stories of media innovation and climate change the tensions between amateur and professional art the emergence of biennials triennials and new arts organizations the theme of water in regional art new models for networked collaboration and social media s move from private to public realms A generous selection of illustrations shows a range of artist s projects
