The Radio Eye Jerry White, 2009-11-17 The Radio Eye Cinema in the North Atlantic 1958 1988 examines the way in which media experiments in Quebec Newfoundland the Faroe Islands and the Irish Gaelic speaking communities of Ireland use film video and television to advocate for marginalized communities and often for smaller languages The Radio Eye is not however a set of isolated case studies Author Jerry White illustrates the degree to which these experiments are interconnected sometimes implicitly but more often quite explicitly Media makers in the North Atlantic during the period 1958 1988 were very aware of each other s cultures and aspirations and by structuring the book in two interlocking parts White illustrates the degree to which a common project emerged during those three decades The book is bound together by White s belief that these experiments are following in the idealism of Soviet silent filmmaker Dziga Vertov who wrote about his notion of the Radio Eye White also puts these experiments in the context of work by the Cuban filmmaker and theorist Julio Garc a Espinosa and his notion of imperfect cinema J rgen Habermas and his notions of the public sphere and dourard Glissant s ideas about cr olit as the defining aspect of modern culture This is a genuinely internationalist moment and these experiments are in conversation with a wide array of thought across a number of languages
