A Baghdad Chronicle:

A Bagdad Chronicle Reuben Levy, A Baghdad Chronicle Reuben Levy, 1929 Baghdad Diaries Nuha al-Radi, 2003-05-06 An Iraqi painter ceramist and sculptor documents her experiences of the war on Iraq in 1991 the hunger and privation caused by the embargo through 1996 her life in exile and her fears as events built toward the 2003 war

Baghdad Chronicle David Enders, Mark Gordon James, 2005-07 A group of young British toffs set up The Baghdad Chronicle an English newspaper in Iraq during the U S invasion They lose their entire investment and very nearly their lives one gets kidnapped and then released They are now back in the U K to tell their extraordinary tale Medieval Islam Gustave E. von Grunebaum, 2010-01-15 From the Preface This book has grown out of a series of public lectures delivered in the spring of 1945 in the Division of the Humanities of the University of Chicago It proposes to outline the cultural orientation of the Muslim Middle Ages with eastern Islam as the center of attention It attempts to characterize the medieval Muslim s view of himself and his peculiarly defined universe the fundamental intellectual and emotional attitudes that governed his works and the mood in which he lived his life It strives to explain the structure of his universe in terms of inherited borrowed and original elements the institutional framework within which it functioned and its place in relation to the contemporary Christian world A consideration of the various fields of cultural activity requires an analysis of the dominant interest the intentions and to some extent the methods of reasoning with which the Muslim approached his special subjects and to which achievement and limitations of achievement are due Achievements referred to or personalities discussed will never be introduced for their own sake let alone for the sake of listing the sum total of this civilization s major contributions They are dealt with rather to evidence the peculiar ways in which the Muslim essayed to understand and to organize his world The plan of the book thus rules out the narration of political history beyond the barest skeleton but it requires the ascertaining of the exact position of Islam in the medieval world and its significance This plan also excludes a study of Muslim economy but it leads to an interpretation of the social structure as molded by the prime loyalties cherished by the Muslim The Social Structure of Islam Reuben Levy, The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 28, 2015-06-29 The initial years 126 145 of al Man r s reign presented several significant challenges to nascent Abb sid hegemony and the resulting confrontations constitute the central focus of this section of abar s Tarikh After Abu Jafar succeeded his brother Ab Al abb s as caliph the second of the Abb sid dynasty he moved against his recalcitrant uncle Abd All h ibn Al and against the potential threat that he perceived in the person of the commander in Khurasan Abu Muslim Eliminating the latter and containing the former freed the caliph to address a series of other onslaughts and insurrections Starting with the year 144 however abar turned to this volume s principal preoccupation to which half of the book is devoted Judging by the attention given to it he clearly perceived the Hasanid rebellions of Muhammad b Abdallah the Pure Soul and of his brother Ibrahim to be the most substantial attack on Abbasid authority to arise in the first years of that dynasty abar s description of the prolonged search for Muhammad and Ibrahim and of the caliphal vengeance visited upon their father and family provides an extended prelude to the vivid battle and death scenes in Medina and Bakhamra Yet elaboration of these events does not eclipse mention of all other Abbasid activity To bridge the account of Muhammad's defeat and that of Ibrahim's uprising al-Tabari inserted a narrative interlude depicting the site selection and preliminary construction of al-Manra's most celebrated achievement the City of Peace Baghdad

U.S. Marines in Iraq, 2003, 2006

The History of al-Tabari Vol. 32, 2015-07-01 The 20 years caliphate of al-Manra began as a stormy period in Middle Eastern history after the comparatively peaceful reign of his father Harun al-Rashid the caliphate was plunged into violent civil warfare in both Iraq and Arabia involving the sons of al-Rashid rivals for the supreme authority and various other sectarian rebels and aspirants for power Yet once peace was secured and the caliphate lands united once more al-Manra's reign settled down into one of the most exciting and innovative of the mediaeval caliphate The Caliph himself was a highly cultivated man who possessed a keen intellectual curiosity and who interested himself in the practical sciences astronomy and mathematics He also encouraged the translating of Greek philosophical scientific and medical works from Greek and Syriac into Arabic and involved himself in theological controversies in which the dialectical techniques of the Greek thinkers were to figure abar's history of this period constitutes a prime source for political and military history His racy and vivid style including many verbatim conversations and documents brings the Caliphate of al-Manra very much alive A discounted price is available when purchasing the entire 39 volume History of al-Tabari set Contact SUNY Press for more information

Arabic Literary Salons in the Islamic Middle Ages

Samer M. Ali, 2010-11-15 Arabic literary salons emerged in ninth century Iraq and by the tenth were flourishing in Baghdad and other urban centers In an age before broadcast media and classroom education salons were the primary source of entertainment and escape for middle and upper rank members of society serving also as a space and means for educating the young Although salons relied on a culture of oral performance from memory scholars of Arabic literature have focused almost exclusively on the written dimensions of the tradition That emphasis argues Samer Ali has neglected the interplay of oral and written as well as of religious and secular knowledge in salon society and the surprising ways in which these seemingly discrete categories blurred in the lived experience of participants Looking at the period from 500 to 1250 and using methods from European medieval studies folklore and cultural anthropology Ali interprets Arabic manuscripts in order to answer fundamental questions about literary salons as a social institution He identifies salons not only as sites for socializing and educating but as loci for performing literature and oral history for creating and transmitting cultural identity and for continually reinterpreting the past A fascinating recovery of a key element of humanistic culture Ali's work will encourage a recasting of our understanding of verbal art cultural memory and daily life in medieval Arab culture

Medieval Trade in the Mediterranean World, 2001-09-18 This collection of merchant documents is essential reading for any student of economic developments in the Middle Ages who wishes to go beyond the level of textbook summaries Different aspects of economic life in the Mediterranean world are delineated in the light of a rich variety of articles and other contemporary writings drawn from Muslim and Christian sources From commercial contracts promissory notes and judicial acts to working manuals of practical geography and philology this volume of documents provides an unparalleled portrait of the world of medieval commerce Classical Islam G. E. von Grunebaum, 2017-07-28 In a book written with the poignancy and beauty appropriate to its subject matter the author opens by reminding us that the essence of a society is in a sense identical with its history Classical Islam also serves as a reminder that in the case of Islam despite its triumphs on the fields of battle telling its history is the only way open to us to render that essence accessible and show it from all sides The work offers a grand narrative of a faith that offers an interpretation of the world a way of life and a style of thinking that goes far beyond institutional or political supports The relevance of this historical perspective is beyond dispute The period from 610 A D when Muhammad received his call until the conquest of Baghdad by the Mongols in 1258 is known as the classical period of Islam This was the period of the great expansion of Islam both as a political structure and as a religious and intellectual community It established the base for the development of the high Islamic civilization of North Africa the Near East Persia and India as well as further expansion of the Islamic religious and intellectual community throughout the world This book presents an authoritative history of the period written by one of the world s leading experts on the subject Classical Islam examines the relationships both cultural and political between the Islamic world and the Mediterranean countries and India and elaborates on the economic social and intellectual factors and forces that shaped the Muslim world and molded its interactions with infidels The work is written in a clear and direct narrative form emphasizing simultaneously the major intellectual trends and the political events and tendencies of the formative period in Islamic history that still resonates today Routledge

Library Editions: Christianity Various Authors, 2022-07-30 Originally published between 1926 and 1986 the books in this series provide an extensive exploration of Christianity covering a wide range of different perspectives and topics including the relationship between Christianity and other religions the history and development of Christianity Christian theology and philosophy the presence of Christianity across the world women and the Church approaches to the study of Christianity and poetry inspired by religious architecture Islam G E von Grunebaum, 2013-10-16 The essays in this volume deal with three fundamental problems in Islamic civilization the growth among Muslims of a consciousness of belonging to a culture the unity of Muslim civilization as expressed in literature political thought attitude to science and urban structure and the interaction of Islam with other civilizations The Buwayhid Dynasty in Iraq 334H./945 to 403H./1012 John Donohue, 2021-10-11 A study of the development of political and social institutions in Baghdad center of the Abbasid Caliphate in that neglected period between Abbasid collapse and the coming of the Seljuk Turks Three brothers Daylemites mercenaries from the southern Caspian succeeded in establishing a dynasty that lasted nearly a century controlling Iraq a good part of Iran and the Gulf The period has been labeled the Iranian intermezzo but careful examination shows that the

dynasty shaped the basic institutions to which the Seljuks would fall heir the chief amirate the system of army fiefs and the bureaucracy It was a period of profound change and dislocation which fostered an open and creative cultural atmosphere The Caliphate bereft of power was re established as the center of authority and legitimation The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 36 ,2015-07-07 The present volume of al abar s monumental history covers the years 255 265 869 878 the first half of the reign of the Abbasid caliph al Mu tamid in S marr Although the decade was one of relative calm in the capital compared with the anarchy of the years immediately preceding danger signals were flashing in territories adjacent to the imperial heartlands Chief among them was the revolt of the Zanj the narrative of which occupies the bulk of the present volume A people of semi servile status the Zanj who were based in the marshlands of southern Iraq were led by a somewhat shadowy and mysterious figure claiming Shi ite descent Ali b Muhammad Their prolonged revolt against the central authorities was not crushed until 269 882 Al abar s account of these momentous events is unique in both the quality and the quantity of his information He himself was present in Baghdad during the years of the revolt and he was thus able to construct his story from reports by numerous eyewitnesses The result is a detailed narrative that brings alive for the modern reader the main personalities and engagements of the revolt Documents of the Jewish pious foundations from the Cairo Geniza Moshe Gil,2023-09-20 Sāsānid Soldiers in Early Muslim Society Mohsen Zakeri,1995 Housing the Stranger in the Mediterranean World Olivia Remie Constable,2004-01-15 The Greek pandochēion Arabic funduq and Latin fundicum fondaco were ubiquitous in the Mediterranean sphere for nearly two millennia These institutions were not only hostelries for traders and travelers but also taverns markets warehouses and sites for commercial taxation and regulation In this highly original study Professor Constable traces the complex evolution of this family of institutions from the pandochēion in Late Antiquity to the appearance of the funduq throughout the Muslim Mediterranean following the rise of Islam By the twelfth century with the arrival of European merchants in Islamic markets the funduq evolved into the fondaco These merchant colonies facilitated trade and travel between Muslim and Christian regions Before long fondacos also appeared in southern European cities This study of the diffusion of this institutional family demonstrates common economic interests and cross cultural communications across the medieval Mediterranean world and provides a striking contribution to our understanding of this region Capítulo Que Faba de Las Preguntas Que Fizieron a la Donzella Teodor Margaret Parker,1996 Study of the dissemination of a popular story across cultures including text and English translation of versions from different languages
