Mama was a Rolling Stone Nancy King, 2023-03-02 This Book is Dedicated to All The Women Who Did Whatever It Took To Raise Their Children I love my Mama and decided to honor her by showing not only myself but also others that during life s adversities sicknesses deaths and financial struggles our past does not determine our future Mama was 4 11 ft tall and had been married multiple times had multiple boyfriends and even multiple one night stands Mama was shaped like a Coca Cola bottle had long thick hair and had a pretty skin tone She had skin like a baby and it was soft as cotton Her eyes were shaped like a diamond and they slightly protruded in a sexy way However her blessing of beauty was sadly also a curse Her struggles in life growing up in Why Not Mississippi with a 5th grade education and the loss of her mom caused Mama to go through some trying times and struggles Due to Mama s struggles Mama made choices that had temporary sex but permanent consequences Mama was ashamed of the path she took in life selling sex as a financial means to provide for her children but she took the STONES she had in life and turned them into gems One of those gems she created was me Although I struggled with some of the same mistakes as Mama I resisted the things that I could and obeyed most of Mama s lessons Mama helped me to triumph and become the successful entrepreneur I am today Both our stories will be shared in this book and I hope this book will be a revelation for some and transformational for many Who knew that Papa being A Rolling Stone had a domino effect that sometimes made Mama a Rolling Stone too
