A Brush With Death An Artist In The Death Camps:

A Brush with Death Morris Wyszogrod, 2012-02-01 In this memoir Morris Wyszogrod recounts his experiences from the time of the Nazi invasion of Poland to the liberation of the Theresienstadt concentration camp in 1945 He describes in detail the time he spent in the Warsaw Ghetto his work as an artist for various Luftwaffe personnel at the Warsaw military airport his experiences at the Budzyn concentration camp where he was assigned to decorate the living quarters of the SS and to produce drawings at an orgiastic Oktoberfest his removal to Plaszow where he was put to work digging up mass graves and burning the bodies to eliminate the evidence of Nazi war crimes his witnessing of the firebombing of Dresden in February 1945 and his subsequent liberation at Theresienstadt by the Red Army in May 1945 Just as an artist may register what she or he sees against a sensitive visual and moral template so Wyszogrod doubly registered what he saw and felt both in his drawings and in his memories

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism

Holocaust Persecution Wendy Koenig, Nancy Rupprecht, Nancy E. Rupprecht, 2020-06-01 This anthology of selected thematic articles is a unique approach to Holocaust Studies because it focuses on the responses to and consequences of Holocaust persecution rather than on the fact of it After a brief overview of the Holocaust itself the book is divided into two sections Responses to Holocaust Persecution and Consequences of Holocaust Persecution Each section of the book begins with a scholarly essay by an internationally recognized scholar Robert Satloff Executive Director of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy and author of Among the Righteous Lost Stories of the Holocaust's Long Reach Into Arab Lands contributes a scholarly essay to the Responses section of this volume called Countering Holocaust Denial in the Middle East A New Approach Satloff maintains that Holocaust denial in Arab regions may be more effectively countered if recognition is given to Arabs who helped Jews during the Holocaust and if the fate of Jews in Arab lands particularly during World War II is given a more thorough consideration Two additional essays in this segment of the book focus on Arab or Muslim reactions to the Holocaust In addition the Responses section includes articles concerning both collaboration with the German occupiers and Jewish rescue of Jewish victims as well as essays that discuss political and personal responses to Nazi persecution Gerhard L Weinberg author of the magnum opus A World at Arms A Global History of World War II is generally considered to be the world's most important authority on the Second World War He contributes the primary article in the Consequences section of this volume The Holocaust and the Nuremberg Trials His essay argues that the evidence presented at the Nuremberg tribunal as well as the legal principles established at Nuremberg have set important precedents in international law that also influence the course of contemporary politics as well as both Holocaust and genocide studies Subsequent articles in this section of the book discuss the legal personal moral and political consequences of the Holocaust

The Devil's Chosen Robert W. Barker, 2005-03-21 Faster faster come the German shouts Louder and more impatient Into the ravine they run Schnell Schnell No time to think No time to escape Fear chokes their hearts Breathing comes quick and shallow No place to hide No place to go but down the bank down into nature's quiet embrace open to greet them open to enfold them The brutality and terror of the Holocaust is chillingly brought back to life in this series of fictional accounts from author Robert Barker SS officer Hans Grber the sometimes confused and troubled perpetrator acts as our guide by connecting the scenes in the different stories With a focus on the stark personal decisions made by the perpetrators and victims alike The Devil's Chosen raises disturbing and enduring questions Do we summon the bravery to stand against evil or do we abandon all to save ourselves Do we have the right and the power to forgive the silent bystanders as well as those responsible What is our role The Devil's Chosen brings the actions and decisions of both the victims and the perpetrators into focus against the unforgiving background of terror and death
