recognised as key clinicians within the multidisciplinary team caring for people with IBD Through experience and specialist knowledge IBD nurses provide timely support advice and treatment for people living with this unpredictable condition IBD nurses are also well placed to liaise with the wider team developing patient centred services which best fit their local health framework This updated manual brings together international expertise and practical insights to support nurses and clinicians in optimizing IBD management Whether you re a seasoned professional or looking to expand your expertise this resource equips you with the knowledge and confidence to enhance care and improve outcomes for people living with IBD wherever in the world you work Neonatal Palliative Care for Nurses Alexandra Mancini,Jayne Price,Tara

Kerr-Elliott,2020-01-22 This textbook details the nursing care of babies with life limiting conditions and sets the context within the philosophy of internationally collaborative neonatal palliative care emphasising emotional and practical support for their families Currently increasing interest from nursing and medical fields regarding palliative care for babies in the antenatal and neonatal period is evident This innovative and unique text provides experienced nurses and student nurses alike with realistic guidance in caring for babies with palliative care needs alongside the crucial support for their families and identifies important strategies for professional self care Nursing experts in this field collaborated to develop a reference book which supports holistic and integrated clinical practice Parents experiences of what they consider helpful or not so helpful are interwoven throughout the chapter There is currently no other textbook which offers the above information and guidance specifically for nurses and allied health professionals As such this book will appeal to all nurses and health professionals working within the neonatal palliative care specialty in a global context A Knapsack Full of Dreams Cathy

Crowe,2019-06-26 My nurse hands once did more useful things They immunized the fat healthy thighs of infants they carefully measured cardiac drugs to administer to young heart patients they bathed both the elderly lady after her surgery and the 24 year old Italian Canadian woman after her death My hands once mixed linseed poultices rubbed twenty backs a night before darkness fell and by flashlight checked intravenous drips catheters and other tubing They made hot milk in the middle of the night and then later at home soothed a child with too frequent earaches These are good uses for hands Now they carry a black bag into streets alleyways and ravines The bandages I carry no longer cover the wounds of my patients My vitamins will not prevent the white plague of tuberculosis from taking another victim The granola bars I carry cannot begin to feed the hunger I meet I cannot even help someone achieve one peaceful night of safety and sleep Only roofs will do that And I am not a carpenter There is no right to shelter or housing in Canada Over the past three decades a series of federal governments cut funding for social programs and eliminated our national housing program leaving hundreds of thousands of people victim to the tsunami of homelessness that was declared a national disaster twenty years ago No one knows this reality better than Cathy Crowe who witnessed the explosion of homelessness across Canada while working as a Street Nurse This fallout was accompanied by great suffering inhumane shelter conditions new disease outbreaks and clusters of homeless deaths It is a reality that spans across the entire country In A Knapsack Full of Dreams Cathy Crowe details her lifelong commitment as a nurse and social justice activist particularly her thirty years as a Street Nurse with passion grace and fortitude Presented through the lens of someone dedicated to the power and beauty of film A Knapsack Full of Dreams will move you then inspire you to act Children and Young People's Nursing Ruth Davies,Alyson Davies,2011-04-29 Children and Young People's Nursing provides a comprehensive overview of the issues facing children's nurses today It focuses on developing best practice and implementing high quality care This book covers the wide range of general and specialist care settings in which children and young people's nurses work including schools the community and mental health Written by a team of experts from across the UK it emphasizes throughout the fundamental principles of contemporary children's nursing such as family centred care safeguarding and the need for a culturally sensitive and rights based approach to care This is an essential text for all children's nursing students as well as a useful reference for qualified nurses looking to update their practice Key features All chapters are underpinned by current policies and the latest research Key points reflection points principles for practice boxes and case studies to aid learning Concludes with a section on building your portfolio and advancing your practice and career FRED M.
