Piano to Wolf Creek      A Century of Cinema Jane Warren, Colin W. Nettelbeck, 1996      Culture in Australia Tony Bennett, David Carter, 2001-09-03 A 2001 survey of the changing policies and priorities that are evident in a range of contemporary cultural institutions in Australia      Australian Documentary Trish FitzSimons, Pat Laughren, Dugald Williamson, 2011-01-31 Australian Documentary brings to life over a century of documentary making      Finding Queensland in Australian Cinema Allison Craven, 2016-07-09 Finding Queensland in Australian Cinema explores gender race and place in selected Australian films in various phases of Australian cinema from Charles Chauvel's Jeddah 1955 to the period films of the New Wave in the 1970s to the Indigenous filmmakers since the 1990s and the contemporary era of transnational productions in Australia      New Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, Geoff Mayer, 1992-06-26 The institutions and products of the Australian film industry have been extensively surveyed yet few analyses consider the sources of the film revival that took place in the 1970s and 1980s This book represents a body of thinking about Australian cinema that asks where the origins of films lie The book begins by tracing the indebtedness of Australian cinema to the classical narrative style of Hollywood film making with its firm grasp of melodrama It continues by comparing the problems faced by the high British cinema of the 1940s and 1950s with those faced by Australia in the 1970s and 1980s in the attempts by both countries to establish national film industries New Australian Cinema will increase the scope of the discussion about the revival of Australian cinema and help us to make cultural sense of the films themselves      Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand 2 Ben Goldsmith, Mark David Ryan, Geoff Lealand, 2015-04-01 Building on and bringing up to date the material presented in the first instalment of Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand this volume continues the exploration of the cinema produced in Australia and New Zealand since the beginning of the twentieth century Among the additions to this volume are in depth treatments of the locations that feature prominently in the countries cinema Essays by leading critics and film scholars consider the significance of the outback and the beach in films which are evoked as a liminal space in Long Weekend and a symbol of death in Heaven's Burning among other films Other contributions turn the spotlight on previously unexplored genres and key filmmakers including Jane Campion Rolf de Heer Charles Chauvel and Gillian Armstrong Accompanying the critical essays in this volume are more than one hundred and fifty new film reviews complemented by film stills and significantly expanded references for further study From The Piano to Crocodile Dundee Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand 2 completes this comprehensive treatment of a consistently fascinating national cinema      APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service ,      Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies

Australian Film Festivals Kirsten Stevens, 2016-11-10 This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the history operation and growth of film festivals as a cultural phenomenon within Australia Tracing the birth of film festivals in Australia in the 1950s through to their present abundance it asks why film festivals have prospered as audience driven spectacles throughout Australia while never developing the same industry and market foci of their international fellows Drawing on over sixty years of archival records festival commentary interviews with festival insiders and ephemera this book opens up a largely uncharted history of film culture activity in Australia

Film Criticism as Cultural Fantasy Andrew McGregor, 2010 This book presents an unprecedented analysis of the dynamics of cultural representation and interpretation in film criticism It examines how French critical reception of Australian cinema since the revival period of the 1970s has evolved as a narrative of perpetual discovery and how a clear parallel can be drawn between French critics reading of Australian film and their interpretation of an exotic Australian national identity In French critical writing on Australian cinema Australian identity is frequently defined in terms of extremes of cultural specificity and cultural anonymity On the one hand French critics construct a Euro centric orientalist fantasy of Australia as not only a European Antipodes but the antithesis of Europe At the same time French critics have tended to subordinate Australian cultural identity within the framework of a resented Anglo American filmic and cultural hegemony The book further explores this marginalisation by examining the influence of the French auteur paradigm particularly in reference to the work of Jane Campion as well as by discussing the increasingly problematic notion of national identity and indeed national cinemas within the universal framework of international film culture

Australian Gothic Jonathan Rayner, 2022-06-01 The book reads the Gothic characteristics of Australian cinema within their national cultural context The book relates the key motifs and concerns of Gothic literature to the styles narratives and significance of Australian films The book places examples of Australian Gothic film within the Australian filmmaking and film criticism and relates these to the wider trends of international horror film
