A Christmas Party Carolyn Sherwin Bailey, 1975-01-01 On Christmas eve the forest gives a party for all the animals

Dickens' Novels as Poetry Jeremy Tambling, 2014-11-13 Focusing on the language style and poetry of Dickens novels this study breaks new ground in reading Dickens novels as a unique form of poetry Dickens writing disallows the statement of single unambiguous truths and shows unconscious processes burrowing within language disrupting received ideas and modes of living Arguing that Dickens within nineteenth century modernity sees language as always double Tambling draws on a wide range of Victorian texts and current critical theory to explore Dickens interest in literature and popular song and what happens in jokes in caricature in word play and punning and in naming Working from Dickens earliest writings to the latest deftly combining theory with close analysis of texts the book examines Dickens key novels such as Pickwick Papers Martin Chuzzlewit Dombey and Son Bleak House Little Dorrit Great Expectations and Our Mutual Friend It considers Dickens as constructing an urban poetry alert to language coming from sources beyond the individual and relating that to the dream life of characters who both can and cannot awake to fuller different consciousness Drawing on Walter Benjamin Lacan and Derrida Tambling shows how Dickens writes a new and comic poetry of the city and that the language constitutes an unconscious and secret autobiography This volume takes Dickens scholarship in exciting new directions and will be of interest to all readers of nineteenth century literary and cultural studies and more widely to all readers of literature A

Companion to Victorian Poetry Ciaran Cronin, 2008-04-15 This Companion brings together specially commissioned essays by distinguished international scholars that reflect both the diversity of Victorian poetry and the variety of critical approaches that illuminate it Approaches Victorian poetry by way of genre production and cultural context rather than through individual poets or poems Demonstrates how a particular poet or poem emerges from a number of overlapping cultural contexts Explores the relationships between work by different poets Recalls attention to a considerable body of poetry that has fallen into neglect Essays are informed by recent developments in textual and cultural theory Considers Victorian women poets in every chapter

Dostoevsky Joseph Frank, 2009-10-19 A magnificent one volume abridgement of one of the greatest literary biographies of our time Joseph Frank's award winning five volume Dostoevsky is widely recognized as the best biography of the writer in any language and one of the greatest literary biographies of the past half century Now Frank's monumental 2 500 page work has been skillfully abridged and condensed in this single highly readable volume with a new preface by the author Carefully preserving the original work's acclaimed narrative style and combination of biography intellectual history and literary criticism Dostoevsky A Writer in His Time illuminates the writer's works from his first novel Poor Folk to Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov by setting them in their personal historical and above all ideological context More than a biography in the usual sense this is a cultural history of nineteenth century Russia providing both a rich picture of the world in which Dostoevsky lived and a major reinterpretation of his life and work

Poetry in Exile Josef Hrdlička, 2020-09-01 In his book Josef Hrdlička opens the question of what exactly constitutes Exile Poetry and indeed whether it amounts to a category as fundamental as Romantic or Bucolic lyricism He covers the intricately complex and diverse topic of exile by exploring selected literary texts from antiquity to the present giving due attention to writers that have influenced the exile discourse from Ovid Goethe and Baudelaire to the thinkers and poets of the 20th century like Adorno or Saint John Perse Against this backdrop of exile poetics he turns his attention to Czech poets who left their homeland after the Communist Coup of 1948 and were notable contributors to Czech literature abroad Hrdlička considers the works of Ivan Blatný Milada Součková Ivan Diviš and Petr Král to show the continuity and changes in the western poetic tradition and expressions of exile

Yorkshire Dialect Poems (1673-1915) and traditional poems F. W. Moorman, 2019-11-22 F W Moorman s Yorkshire Dialect Poems 1673 1915 and Traditional Poems presents a rich tapestry of the linguistic and cultural heritage of Yorkshire through an extensive compilation of dialect poetry This anthology not only showcases the distinctive phonetics and vernacular lexicon of Yorkshire but also reflects the social and historical context that shaped these poetic expressions Moorman s scholarly approach highlights both well known and obscure poets offering an authentic representation of the evolution of the dialect and the thematic concerns ranging from rural life to industrial change woven together with vivid imagery and local idioms Frank William Moorman was a notable philologist and scholar whose deep rooted passion for Yorkshire s literature and language led him to curate this essential collection His background in linguistics and his commitment to preserving regional dialects of England drove him to explore the nuances of Yorkshire's poetic landscape. Furthermore, his dedication as an educator emphasized the importance of language as a cultural artifact, making him a pivotal figure in the movement to appreciate and understand the dialectal variations of English literary traditions. For readers interested in regional literature, linguistics, or the social history of England, Moorman's Yorkshire Dialect Poems is an invaluable resource. It is not only an exploration of dialect poetry but also a celebration of Yorkshire's unique cultural identity. This book will appeal to scholars and casual readers alike, inviting them to immerse themselves in the rhythm and resonance of Yorkshire's rich literary tradition.

Pasternak: Doctor Zhivago Angela Livingstone, 1989-06-22 Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1918 The Poems of Dr. Zhivago Boris Leonidovich Pasternak, 1965 Santa's Book of Knowledge Santa Al Horton, 2011-06 Have you ever thought what the world would be like if I didn't carry that sack and make that sleigh ride each year? I know one thing there wouldn't be a need for a Naughty and Nice list anymore. Can you imagine all those children and their sad little faces? I could never give up this cause because the children are so angelic with those bright and cheery smiles when they look at you or the presents you leave on Christmas morning. Santa Claus. Les Murray Steven Matthews, 2001 In the only full critical study of Les Murray's work, Steven Matthews provides a complete account of the poet's career to date. A controversial figure, Murray's version of Australian republicanism has caused heated argument about the future direction of his country as it moves away from its colonial past. With detailed readings of major poems and literary and cultural contexts surrounding the work, Matthews gives an overview of Murray's place in Australian literature and national thought. Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1893 Harper's Magazine made its debut in June 1850, the brainchild of the prominent New York book publishing firm Harper Brothers. Harper's Magazine, the oldest general interest monthly in America, explores the issues that drive our national conversation through long-form narrative journalism and essays and such celebrated features as the iconic Harper's Index. With its emphasis on fine writing and original thought, Harper's provides readers with a unique perspective on politics, society, the environment, and culture. The Best American Poetry 2008 Charles Wright, David Lehman, 2008-09-16 The Best American Poetry series is a beloved mainstay of American poetry. This year's edition was edited by one of the most admired and acclaimed poets of his generation, Charles Wright. Known for his meditative and beautiful observations of landscape, change, and time, Wright brings his particular sensibility to this year's anthology, which contains an ecumenical slant that is unprecedented for the series. He has gathered an astonishing selection of work that includes new poems by Carolyn Forché, Jorie Graham, Louise Glück, Frank Bidart, Frederick Seidel, Patti Smith, and Kevin Young, and showcases a dazzling array of rising stars like Joshua Beckman, Erica Dawson, and Alex Lemon. With captivating and revelatory notes from the poets on their works and sage and erudite introductory essays by Wright and series editor David Lehman, The Best American Poetry 2008 will be read, discussed, debated, and prized for years to come.
