A Coast To Coast Walk A Pictorial Guide:

A Coast to Coast Walk Alfred Wainwright, 2017-10-19 The Coast to Coast Walk devised by Alfred Wainwright himself is the country's most loved long distance walking route. It stretches across 190 miles from St Bees Head on the East coast to Robin Hood's Bay on the West passing through the Lake District Yorkshire Dales and North York Moors. This Reader's Edition of Wainwright's final Pictorial Guide first published in 1973 has been freshly reproduced from Wainwright's original text illustrations and beautifully hand drawn black and white route maps.

A Coast to Coast Walk - St Bees Head to Robin Hood's Bay Alfred Wainwright, 1973 Coast to Coast Walk A. Wainwright, 1994

When Wainwright planned his cross England expedition he chose a route which he hoped would commit no act of trespass or offence against privacy. It later transpired that certain sections of the route did indeed cross land over which there was no public right of way and this revised edition sets out to amend those sections so that the walk is now either on public roads public rights of way or on permissive paths.

Coast to Coast Walk A. Wainwright, 2010-05-25 This is the first fully revised and updated edition of A Wainwright's pocket sized guide to the Coast to Coast Walk which he devised in the early 1970s. Over the years this 190 mile walk from St Bees Head on the Irish Sea by way of the Lake District the Pennines Swaledale and the North York Moors ending at Robin Hood's Bay on the North Sea has become one of the best loved long distance routes in the world. It has prompted countless enthusiasts to lace up their walking boots and follow Wainwright's example and inspired a TV series too. This brand new edition of the Pictorial Guide contains Wainwright's hand drawn route maps and his inimitable commentary completely revised where necessary by Chris Jesty. The route is picked out in red for greater visibility on the page and every step of the walk has been checked and updated.
