A Cold And Distant Memory:

Distance Memories Scott Ludwig, 2013-04-30 Ive been around the block a few times Over half a million times actually Assuming a block is approximately 100 yards long and 100 yards wide running just over 130 000 lifetime miles equates to a few more than 500 000 times around the block So yeah Ive been around the block a few times Ive had my share of ups and downs The Boston Marathon the Badwater Ultramarathon and having whatever it takes to run every single day since November 30 1978 would fall into the former an aging body injuries and well to be totally honest falling down while running much too often these days would fall into the latter But its been a good long run and I wouldnt have wanted it any other way My wife Cindy believes the 2003 Badwater Ultramarathon signaled the beginning of my declining health and running ability I beg to differ I believe it was my last place and darn proud of it finish in the 2006 Western States Endurance Run that catapulted me into the downside of my running career However I have no regrets As I said earlier its been a good long run and I wouldnt have wanted it any other way Besides if it had been any other way I wouldnt have had the many tales you will find in this book that you quite frankly could not possibly find anywhere else These are my stories from my experiences and my perspectives on running as well as life Theyre all absolutely true Theyre all brutally honest Theyre all from the heart Most of all theyre all mine Scott Ludwig 2013

In the Morning Philip Lee Williams, 2006

Ashlight Rising Dianna Aubin, 2025-07-20 After nuclear fire choked the skies and turned the sun to ash humanity survived in the shadows beneath artificial light and the unrelenting control of Helion the corporation that rationed every breath every lumen every heartbeat The world below was silent its hum the only rhythm left But when a fissure tears open in the dark revealing the Radiant Core an ancient living source of light buried deep in the planet Jonas Vale becomes the unwilling conduit between humanity and a power far greater than Helion ever controlled Linked to the Core by fragments in his blood

Jonas is the only one who can modulate its radiance balancing a force that could burn the planet to cinders or remake it into something unrecognizable With Kael a relentless strategist Biran a scarred engineer and Lira a marksman hardened by years in the dark Jonas must hold the Core's spectrum steady as the old world unravels Helion's order collapses ecosystems mutate under the new sun and humanity faces a choice adapt to a planet reshaped by something not of Earth or vanish with the shadows As the Core's pull threatens to consume him Jonas must decide whether to surrender to a power that sees him as nothing more than a thread in its web or sever the bond and risk plunging the world back into darkness Life, Love And Heartache...Poems of the Northern Lights Calvin Harasemchuk,2008-06

When Victory England bought the house in Waverly Ohio from Percy Justice she had no idea that she was also purchasing a ghost in fact two of them The irritating and violent acts perpetrated by one of the ghosts sends her running back to her realtor Gift Bradford and to the people who sold the house to her her neighbors Percy Justice and his terminally ill wife Catherine for answers With help from Gift Bradford she starts to research the history of the house and of the land the house sets on trying to identify the ghost Meanwhile she has problems with an ex husband struggles to help her dying neighbor deals with personal issues between herself and her mother and develops a special relationship with Gift Bradford all of this while trying to die Can she protect herself from an angry ghost who claims her house as her own while working in opposition to that ghost by delving into issues the ghost wants to remain secret This question builds the book Spooked to a crashing climax Love and Death Gustavo Bondoni,2019-08-06

A collection of linked short stories Love and Death weaves together the lives of several characters around the themes of you guessed it love and death Focusing on moments that define entire lives for good or ill it shows us humanity at its best and at its worst Each page holds a vivid reminder that real life is interesting and magical if occasionally tragic From a poor prostitute to a reformed father to a rich teenager all the characters fates are connected if often without their knowledge I Came Out Sideways George Porter,2014-08-21

George Porter was born on the fault line that perilous place where he lived neither in material comfort nor in abject poverty To one side of his family's cramped home in Waterloo were the terrors of the Liverpool slums where they would surely end up if his father continued to bet on losers to the other were the well to do who lived in council houses and had manners and ways of life that were completely alien to little Georgie His boyhood heroes were Flash Gordon Zorro and best of all Popeye and though he'd never heard of philosophy he came to realise that Popeye's cry of I am what I am was a good enough guide to getting through life Written off by the education system for failing the eleven plus George spent his time kicking toe enders against the wall of the pub and dreaming of playing alongside the great Billy Liddell while his brother went to Grammar School to learn Latin and rugby subjects that it was assumed that George would have no possible use for His life changed when he joined the Boy Scouts acquired an armful of badges bought the militaristic propaganda wholesale and signed up at the age of 14 to join the Army In this witty memoir full of fascinating characters George Porter perfectly captures the spirit of Liverpool in the aftermath of war what it was like to be told you had your brains in your boots because you couldn't recite your twelve times table and how just one fortuitous meeting changed his life The Cordillera - Volume 6 Christopher Bennett, 2014-10-27 Each early June the world's toughest mountain bike race kicks off from Banff Canada. The race course follows dirt roads, muddy tracks and snow-covered mountains along the Continental Divide to the Mexican border, some 2,750 miles in total. This race, this cannonball run of pain, is called the Tour Divide and is unique in the world of sport: the clock never stops and no outside support is allowed. The Cordillera is the journal of the Tour Divide. The Cordillera is about things that break broken bodies, broken bikes, broken spirits. Between these covers are people at their lowest, their most physically and emotionally depleted. Volume 6 of The Cordillera describes the 2014 race. But as always, the Cordillera is about focusing and getting on with the job of trying to reach Antelope Wells. The common thread to all stories is the incredible strength of the human spirit and what can be achieved if we really try. Healing Mind, Body & Soul Alan Bryson, Healing Mind Body and Soul explores the fascinating connection between health and spirituality, reviewing exciting research findings and examining their implications for our health. Moreover, the book thoroughly analyses the role of food in health and reviews breakthrough findings in the field of nutrition. Writing from the perspective of a Bahá'í, Alan Bryson gives the reader his personal insights on such important health issues as diet, spirituality, attitudes, emotions, faith, virtues, prayer, stress management, vegetarianism, complementary medicine, finding the right physician and discovering our own inherent healing potential.
