During the Must See TV 1990s, Americans enjoyed such immensely popular sitcoms as Friends, Seinfeld, Home Improvement, and The Drew Carey Show. Shows that did not make the ratings cut numbered in the hundreds; the emergence of new networks and cable channels airing original programming resulted in a vast increase in short-lived sitcoms over the previous decade. Some of these flops were actually quite good and deserved a better fate. The author revisits them along with the dramedies of the day with detailed entries providing production and broadcast information along with critical analyses and recollections by cast and crew members. A subsection highlights sitcoms that returned for an abbreviated second season. Dozens of cast and crew photographs are included. Billboard, 1996-12-21
