A. Kubler and the Shape of Art History Thomas F. Reese, 2023-04-04 An illuminating intellectual biography of a pioneering and singular figure in American art history Art historian George A. Kubler 1912-1996 was a foundational scholar of ancient American art and archaeology as well as Spanish and Portuguese architecture During over five decades at Yale University he published seventeen books that included innovative monographs major works of synthesis and an influential theoretical treatise In this biography Thomas F. Reese analyzes the early formation broad career and writings of Kubler casting nuanced light on the origins and development of his thinking Notable in Reese's discussion and contextualization of Kubler's writings is a revealing history and analysis of his Shape of Time a book so influential to students scholars artists and curious readers in multiple disciplines that it has been continuously in print since 1962 Reese reveals how pivotal its ideas were in Kubler's own thinking rather than focusing on problems of form as an ordering principle he increasingly came to sequence works by how they communicate meaning The author demonstrates how Kubler who professed to have little interest in theory devoted himself to the craft of art history discovering and charting the rules that guided the propagation of structure and significance through time   Art Epochs and Their Leaders Oskar Hagen,1927   Transactions of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science National Association for the Promotion of Social Science (Great Britain),1877 The volume for 1886 contains the proceedings of the Conference on temperance legislation London 1886

W.P.A. Technical Series ,1937   A History of Chinese Art in the 20th and 21st Century Lü Peng,2025-02-03 This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions Based on the scale and influence of historical works considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field this book s study of the phenomena of painting sculpture photography video and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance 1949 1978 and 1978 to the present Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978 The main readers of this book are undergraduate students in art schools graduate and doctoral students in art history students in other humanities disciplines experts and professors in the study of 20th century Chinese art and cultural history should be important readers of this book   Cultivating Citizens Lauren Kroiz,2018-04-03

Cultivating Citizens rethinks the aesthetics and politics of regionalism in the United States during the 1930s and 1940s During this period painters Grant Wood Thomas Hart Benton and John Steuart Curry formed a loose alliance as American Regionalists Some lauded their depictions of the rural landscape and hardworking inhabitants of America s midwestern heartland Others deemed Regionalist painting dangerous regarding its easily understood realism as a vehicle for jingoism chauvinism and even fascism Cultivating Citizens shifts the terms of this ongoing debate over subject matter and style by considering heretofore neglected Regionalist programs of art education and concepts of artistic labor Provided by publisher

Art Through the Ages an Introduction to its History and Significance Helen Gardner M.A.,1936   The Michigan Alumnus ,1927 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual   Fascism: The 'fascist epoch' Roger Griffin,Matthew Feldman,2004 The nature of fascism has been hotly contested by scholars since the term was first coined by Mussolini in 1919 However for the first time since Italian fascism appeared there is now a significant degree of consensus amongst scholars about how to approach the generic term namely as a revolutionary form of ultra nationalism Seen from this perspective all forms of fascism have three common features anticonservatism a myth of ethnic or national renewal and a conception of a nation in crisis This collection includes articles that show this new consensus which is inevitably contested as well as making available material which relates to aspects of fascism independently of any sort of consensus and also covering fascism of the inter and post war periods This is a comprehensive selection of texts reflecting both the extreme multi faceted nature of fascism as a phenomenon and the extraordinary divergence of interpretations of fascism

Rethinking Architectural Historiography Dana Arnold, Elvan Altan Ergut, Belgin Turan Ozkaya, 2006-09-27

Rather than subscribing to a single position this collection informs the reader about the current state of the discipline looking at changes across the broad field of methodological theoretical and geographical plurality Divided into three sections Rethinking Architectural Historiography begins by renegotiating foundational and contemporary boundaries of architectural history in relation to other fields such as art history and archaeology It then goes on to critically engage with past and present histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in architectural historiography It concludes by exploring the possibilities provided by new perspectives reframing the discipline in the light of new parameters and problematics This timely and illustrated title reflects upon the current changes in historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the disciplines and theories on architectural historiography and addresses the current question of the disciplinary particularity of architectural history

Modernism's History Bernard Smith, 1998-01-01

The history of twentieth century visual arts can no longer be written as a succession of avant garde movements contends eminent art historian Bernard Smith in this stimulating book He argues that a return to the concept of period style is inevitable and that modernism the dominant style of art that emerged at the end of the nineteenth century and continued through the 1960s deserves recognition as a period style Smith renames this period Formalesque since it is no longer modern and since it emphasizes the formal values of art more than any previous period does In a wide ranging reformulation of art history in the twentieth century the author defines the nature and development of Formalesque an avant garde style that arose between 1890 and the First World War was institutionalized between the world wars and flourished anew between 1945 and 1960 Identifying the Formalesque period says Smith makes it possible also to identify dialectical adversaries such true oppositional avant garde styles of the twentieth century as Dada Surrealism and the Neue Sachlichkeit These constitute the formative elements of the modernism now called postmodernism that became increasingly dominant after 1960 The author locates twentieth century artistic movements and developments in a broad cultural context and concludes with a thought provoking examination of the relation between the Formalesque and European and American cultural imperialism
