Writing Borderless Histories of Art Claire Farago, 2025-06-30 Writing Borderless Histories of Art is an aspirational historical and critical project that offers a fundamental rethinking of the relationship of humans to the rest of nature Social justice Indigeneity abuses of power and the environmental crisis are the burning issues of today A transcultural approach calls for abandoning structures of domination that are built into the academic disciplines regardless of the scale or extent of interpretation Drawing upon writings from a wide range of fields Claire Farago argues that Art History can play a role in advancing the public s interconnectedness with the planetary life support system that so urgently needs to be restored Studying the discourse on art at the intersection of global capitalism environmental degradation and human subjection over four centuries Writing Borderless Histories of Art advocates ontologies that do not distinguish between the sentience of humans and other animals and go beyond the dualistic metaphysics of the nature culture divide While this book is addressed to a wide audience its multilayered approach also reaches out to art historians for whom chronology canons and style are structures fundamental to the organization and operation of the discipline The book is neither a history of ideas nor a search for the origins of art history but a recognition of the structures that drive its narratives

Making Copies in European Art 1400-1600, 2018-11-26 Making Copies in European Art 1400 1600 comprises sixteen essays that explore the form and function manner and meaning of copies after Renaissance works of art The authors construe copying as a method of exchange based in the theory and practice of imitation and they investigate the artistic techniques that enabled and facilitated the production of copies They also ask what patrons and collectors wanted from a copy which characteristics of an artwork were considered copyable and where and how copies were stored studied displayed and circulated Making Copies in European Art in addition to studying many unfamiliar pictures incorporates previously unpublished documentary materials

Art, Travel, and Exchange between Iberia and Global Geographies, c. 1400-1550, 2024-12-16 Traditional narratives hold that the art and architecture of the Iberian Peninsula in the late 15th century were transformed by the arrival of artists objects and ideas from northern Europe The year 1492 has been interpreted as a radical rupture marking the end of the Islamic presence on the peninsula the beginning of global encounters and the intensification of exchange between Iberia and Renaissance Italy This volume aims to nuance and challenge this narrative considering the Spanish and Portuguese worlds in conjunction and emphasising the multi directional migrations of both objects and people to and from the peninsula

Language as a Scientific Tool Miles MacLeod,Rocío G. Sumillera,Jan Surman,Ekaterina Smirnova,2016-01-29 Language is the most essential medium of scientific activity Many historians sociologists and science studies scholars have investigated scientific language for this reason but only few have examined those cases where language itself has become an object of scientific discussion Over the centuries scientists have sought to control refine and engineer language for various epistemological communicative and nationalistic purposes This book seeks to explore cases in the history of science in which questions or concerns with language have bubbled to the surface in scientific discourse This opens a window into the particular ways in which scientists have conceived of and construed language as the central medium of their activity across different cultural contexts and places and the clashes and tensions that have manifested their many attempts to engineer it to both preserve and enrich its function The subject of language draws out many topics that have mostly been neglected in the history of science such as the connection between the emergence of national languages and the development of science within national settings and allows us to connect together historical episodes from many understudied cultural and linguistic venues such as Eastern European and medieval Hebrew science

Art In Europe 1700 183: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Art In Europe 1700 183 : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Art In Europe 1700 183 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Art In Europe 1700 183 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
