The Art of the Sister Chapel Andrew Hottle, 2017-07-05 The Sister Chapel 1974-78 was an important collaborative installation that materialized at the height of the women's art movement Conceived as a nonhierarchical secular commemoration of female role models The Sister Chapel consisted of an eighteen foot abstract ceiling that hung above a circular arrangement of eleven monumental canvases each depicting the standing figure of a heroic woman The choice of subject was left entirely to the creator of each work As a result the paintings formed a visually cohesive group without compromising the individuality of the artists Contemporary and historical women deities and conceptual figures were portrayed by distinguished New York painters Alice Neel May Stevens and Sylvia Sleigh as well as their accomplished but less prominent colleagues Among the role models depicted were Artemisia Gentileschi Frida Kahlo Betty Friedan Joan of Arc and a female incarnation of God Although last exhibited in 1980 The Sister Chapel has lingered in the

Brintnall also argues that they reveal the vulnerability of men s bodies and open them up to eroticization Locating the roots of our cultural fascination with male pain in the crucifixion he analyzes the way narratives of Christ's death and resurrection both support and subvert cultural fantasies of masculine power and privilege Through stimulating readings of works by Georges Bataille Kaja Silverman and more Brintnall delineates the redemptive power of representations of male suffering and violence

Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass, 2013-03-22 For the city's first two hundred years the story told at Washington DC's symbolic center the National Mall was about triumphant American leaders Since 1982 when the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated the narrative has shifted to emphasize the memory of American wars In the last thirty years five significant war memorials have been built on or very nearly on the Mall The Vietnam Veterans Memorial the Korean War Veterans Memorial the Women in Military Service for America Memorial The National Japanese American Memorial to Patriotism During WWII and the National World War II Memorial have not only transformed the physical space of the Mall but have also dramatically rewritten ideas about U.S. nationalism expressed there In Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass examines this war memorial boom the debates about war and race and gender and patriotism that shaped the memorials and the new narratives about the nature of American citizenship that they spawned Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall explores the meanings we have made in exchange for the lives of our soldiers and asks if we have made good on our enormous responsibility to them

Melancholia and Moralism Douglas Crimp, 2004 Essays challenging the increasing denial of the AIDS crisis and the rise of conservative gay politics In Melancholia and Moralism Douglas Crimp confronts the conservative gay politics that replaced the radical AIDS activism of the late 1980s and early 1990s He shows that the cumulative losses from AIDS including the waning of militant response have resulted in melancholia as Freud defined it gay men's dangerous identification with the moralistic repudiation of homosexuality by the wider society With the 1993 march on Washington for lesbian and gay rights it became clear that AIDS no longer determined the agenda of gay politics it had been displaced by traditional rights issues such as gay marriage and the right to serve in the military Journalist Andrew Sullivan notorious for pronouncing the AIDS epidemic over even claimed that once those few rights had been won the gay rights movement would no longer have a reason to exist Crimp challenges such complacency arguing that not only is the AIDS epidemic far from over but that its determining role in queer politics has never been greater AIDS he demonstrates is the repressed unconscious force that drives the destructive moralism of the new anti liberation gay politics expounded by such mainstream gay writers as Larry Kramer Gabriel Rotello and Michelangelo Signorile as well as Sullivan Crimp examines various cultural phenomena including Randy Shilts's bestseller And the Band Played On the Hollywood films Silence of the Lambs and Philadelphia and Magic Johnson's HIV infection and retirement from the Los Angeles Lakers He also analyzes Robert Mapplethorpe's and Nicholas Nixon's photography John Greyson's AIDS musical Zero Patience Gregg Bordowitz's video Fast Trip Long Drop the Names Project Quilt and the annual Day without Art     Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro, Petro, 2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred
