Art Of Equatorial Guinea The Fang Tribes:

The Art of Equatorial Guinea Louis Perrois, 1990 French ethnologist Perrois who lived in Equatorial Africa from 1965 to 1984 presents the wealth of his research including a history of colonial conquest and discovery in the region Providing magnificent illustration are a wealth of photographs drawings and maps and a catalog of the Fang objects jewelry masks and especially statues in the collection at the Folch Rusinol Museum in Barcelona 10x115 8 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme, 2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross cultural and contextual perspective The Arts of Africa ,1992 African Dream Machines Anitra Nettleton, 2007-10-01 African Dream Machines takes African headrests out of the category of functional objects and into the more rarefied category of art objects Styles in African headrests are usually defined in terms of western art and archaeological discourses but this book interrogates these definitions of style and demonstrates the shortcomings of defining a single formal style model as exclusive to a single ethnic group Among the artefacts made by southern African peoples headrests were the best known Anitra Nettleton s study of the uses and forms of headrests opened up a number of art historical methodologies in the attempt to gain an understanding of form style and content in African art objects Her drawings of each and every headrest encountered become a major part of the project Tribal Art ,2008 Quarterly journal of the art culture and history of traditional peoples and Old World civilizations Eternal Ancestors Barbara Drake Boehm, 2007 Many masterpieces of central African sculpture were created to amplify the power of sacred relics that affirm a family s vital connection to its ancestral heritage This important volume focusing on some 130 works representing a diverse variety of regional genres illuminates the purpose and significance of these icons of African art which first came to prominence because of their appeal to the Western avant garde While providing an overview of sources ranging from colonial explorers missionaries critics artists and art historians the book breaks new ground in its examination of the complex aesthetic and spiritual dimensions of the reliquaries Its interdisciplinary approach brings together the perspectives of scholars in African and medieval art history along with those in African history religion and ethnography Publisher Fang Louis Perrois, 2006 Fang art is one of the most distinguished arts of Black Africa Its masks with their facial markings abstract features and strong elegant lines were among the most influential in 20th century modern art Fang figures called Bieri are renowned for their child like proportions contrasted with a muscular poised vigilance Fang art also includes iron currency and other objects that exhibit the traditional African ability to making everyday functional objects things of artistic merit Fang reviews these artifacts and their social ritual or symbolic characters Statuettes related to ancestors dance masks of the various rites insignia of power headdresses and jewellery decorated music instruments and everyday utensils all have an amazingly varied aesthetic creativity in harmony with their profuse world of beliefs and myths
