Art Of Exile Paintings By Tibetan Childr:

The Art of Exile Sarah K. Lukas, Clare Harris, 1998 The Tibetan Homes Foundation in Mussoorie India was established in 1962 under the direction of His Holiness the Dalai Lama It was formed as an emergency measure to receive the waves of refugee children arriving from Tibet escaping persecution Along with a standard English curriculum THF has created a traditional living environment and classes that are designed to foster the knowledge and preservation of Tibetan culture A painting club was established in 1995 by the Friends of Tibetan Women s Association to provide these children with a creative way to share their stories of leaving Tibet their remembrances of home and to give new and colorful expression to their lives as exiles in India The Art of Exile Paintings by Tibetan Children in India is a moving collection of interviews photographs and paintings from the children of Tibet in exile It reveals the deep personal struggles and triumphs of these brave and vibrant individuals It also illuminates the depth of commitment by the Tibetan people to keep their unique culture and language alive Visually it presents often remarkably accomplished works of art many that derive from the ancient thangka tradition of Tibet

Childhood Traumas Kamayani Kumar, Angelie Multani, 2019-09-11 This volume contributes to understanding childhoods in the twentieth and twenty first century by offering an in depth overview of children and their engagement with the violent world around them The chapters deal with different historical spatial and cultural contexts yet converge on the question of how children relate to physiological and psychological violence The twentieth century has been hailed as the century of the child but it has also witnessed an unprecedented escalation of cultural trauma experienced by children during the two World Wars Holocaust Partition of the Indian subcontinent and Vietnam War The essays in this volume focus on victimized childhood during instances of war ethnic violence migration under compulsion rape and provide insights into how a child negotiates with abstract notions of nation ethnicity belonging identity and religion They use an array of literary and cinematic representations fiction paintings films and popular culture to explore the long term effect of violence and neglect on children As such they lend voice to children whose experiences of abuse have been multifaceted ranging from genocide conflict and xenophobia to sexual abuse and also consider ways of healing With contributions from across the world this comprehensive book will be useful to scholars and researchers of cultural studies literature education education policy gender studies child psychology sociology political studies childhood studies and those studying trauma conflict and resilience

Tibet in Exile Shalini Mittal, Aditya Anshu, 2025-02-19 This book delves deep into the lived experiences of the Tibetan diaspora offering an insightful exploration through the intersecting lenses of politics psychology and culture Drawing from the expertise of scholars in fields such as political science sociology psychology and cultural studies the book provides a rich multidisciplinary analysis that reveals the complexities of Tibetan life in exile It meticulously examines the delicate diplomacy between the Tibetan government in exile and host nations unraveling the intricate political dynamics that shape the aspirations and challenges faced by Tibetans abroad In addition to political analysis the book sheds light on the psychological resilience and cultural innovation within the Tibetan community Through an exploration of art music literature and religious practices it uncovers how Tibetans have creatively reimagined and redefined their cultural identity in the face of displacement and adversity This volume is an essential resource for students researchers and educators in anthropology political science sociology psychology and cultural studies It also serves as a valuable tool for policymakers advocates and activists engaged in issues of diaspora migration human rights and social justice For anyone seeking to understand the profound impact of exile the endurance of cultural identity and the strength of community this book is a must read This version aims to be more engaging while clearly defining the book s scope relevance and target audience

Immigrant Ambassadors Julia Meredith Hess, 2009-03-23 The Tibetan diaspora began fifty years ago when the current Dalai Lama fled Lhasa and established a government in exile in India For those fifty years the vast majority of Tibetans have kept their stateless refugee status in India and Nepal as a reminder to themselves and the world that Tibet is under Chinese occupation and that they are committed to returning someday In the 1990s the U S Congress passed legislation that allowed 1 000 Tibetans and their families to immigrate to the United States a decade later the total U S population includes some 10 000 Tibetans Not only is the social fact of the migration its historical and political contexts of interest but also how migration and resettlement in the U S reflect emergent identity formations among members of a stateless society Immigrant Ambassadors examines Tibetan identity at a critical juncture in the diaspora s expansion and argues that increased migration to the West is both facilitated and marked by changing understandings of what it means to be a twenty first century Tibetan deterritorialized activist and cosmopolitan

Resistant Hybridities Shelly Bhoil, 2020-11-12 With its analytic focus on the cultural production by Tibetans in exile this volume examines contemporary Tibetan fiction poetry music art cinema pamphlets testimony and memoir The twelve case studies highlight the themes of Tibetans self representation politicized national consciousness religious and cultural heritages and resistance to the forces of colonization This book demonstrates how Tibetan cultural narratives adjust to intercultural influences and ongoing social and political struggles in exile
