The Art of Investment (Classic Reprint) Morrell W. Gaines, 2017-10-14 Excerpt from The Art of Investment The solid fortunes have been amassed through investment and not made by speculation They have been built up by men who have developed character and will power who have created depth and breadth Of mind through concentration and experience rather than by men of exceptional native brilliancy The serious practice of investment is a sturdy and businesslike pursuit It is in fact at the root of every business As an art it depends on no mystery or occult secret It consists of learning facts that are within the common reach and Of applying principles capable Of being assimilated The purpose of this book is to present an outline of principles it is not a manual Of facts The discussion moreover is confined to the principles governing the investment of personal funds excluding the canons of institutional and trustee investment which is concerned with the funds of others Yet even as thus limited the subject is vast and the outline presented is not intended as an exhaustive treatment but merely as a foundation for orderly reasoning and inquiry About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may
