Art Of Our Time The Saatchi Collection 4:

The Hydrogen Jukebox Peter Schjeldahl, 2023-09-01 Baudelaire's famous description of the best criticism as entertaining and poetic not coldly analytic lives in the essays of Peter Schjeldahl. Schjeldahl self consciously continues the modern tradition of art criticism crafted by poet critics providing a sharp perspective on individual artists their work art world events and new creative directions. He challenges established views and his infectious passion for art continually engages the reader. In essays on Rothko Munch Warhol Dubuffet Nauman Sherman Salle de Kooning Guston Ruscha and Koons Schjeldahl skillfully juggles theory and analysis in exploring cultural context and technique. His writings free of the contortions of some critical prose and characterized by a sustained focus on works of art map the contemporary art scene in New York with occasional forays to Los Angeles and elsewhere cataloguing the colorful personalities cultural attractions and ethical hazards of the art world. It's a fast fun trip with arguments that fold back upon themselves in surprising revelations and reversals of the author's opinion. There is never a dull moment for those with an eye on contemporary art. Doy, 2020-08-20 Through its provocative examination of feminist and Marxist approaches to women's art and female representations this book challenges the widespread belief that Marxism has nothing valuable to contribute to women's studies. The author argues that from the French Revolution through to the present gender and class have shaped visual imagery. She shows how Marxist theory can function to question some of the premises of feminist art histories and to provide a more accurate understanding of the meanings of visual imagery Leon Golub Jon Bird, 2000 Now in his late 70s Leon Golub is a leading exponent of history painting painting as a narrative symbolic expression of global social and political relations and of the realities of power. In this book published to accompany a major retrospective exhibition traveling to Ireland England and the United States Jon Bird examines the artist's work from the classically influenced early paintings through depictions of conflict and masculine aggression to compelling images of the last two decades. Despite the widespread critical attention his work has received the range and extent of his practice and its complex interweaving of the iconographic traditions of both high and popular art have not been properly examined. As a history painter Golub is acutely aware of the antecedents to his own imagery and symbolism. Part of Jon Bird's critical project is to track and define the artist's relationship to modernism. Making a case for Golub's practice of critical realism that also takes account of the unconscious Bird focuses on two themes that dominate Golub's work how his art figures the body as a sign for social and psychic identity and what
