Art Of The Amateur 1916 19:

The Abbey Theatre, 1899-1999 Robert Welch, 2003 A century ago this year productions of W B Yeats's The Countess Cathleen and Edward Martyn's The Heather Field launched what was to become Ireland's National Theatre named after its home on Abbey Street Dublin This is the first history of the Abbey Theatre to set the plays and the personalities in their historical and political context and to describe the theatre's artistic development Sean O'Casey Christopher Murray, 2004 Christopher Murray's work on Sean O'Casey is a critical biography In addition to the normal biographical elements Dr Murray provides a strong interpretative context for the life For example he looks afresh at the Dublin of the 1880s and 1890s in order to provide an updated background to O'Casey's childhood He pays a great deal of attention to the political situation from 1880 to 1922 setting it against O'Casey's own treatment in his six volumes of autobiography In general he attempts to establish O'Casey's Ireland This leads naturally to a fresh examination of the great Dublin trilogy The Shadow of a Gunman Juno and the Paycock and The Plough and the Stars the three works on which O'Casey's reputation stands The rejection of his next play The Silver Tassie by the Abbey Theatre precipitated O'Casey's move to England Irish Women Playwrights, 1900-1939 Cathy Leeney, 2010 Irish Women Playwrights 1900 1939 is the first book to examine the plays of five fascinating and creative women placing their work for theatre in co relation to suggest a parallel tradition that reframes the development of Irish theatre into the present day How these playwrights dramatize violence and its impacts in political social and personal life is a central concern of this book Augusta Gregory Eva Gore Booth Dorothy Macardle Mary Manning and Teresa Deevy re model theatrical form re structuring action and narrative and exploring closure as a way of disrupting audience expectation Their plays create stage spaces and images that expose relationships of power and authority and invite the audience to see the performance not as illusion but as framed by the conventions and limits of theatrical representation Irish Women Playwrights 1900 1939 is suitable for courses in Irish theatre women in theatre gender and performance dramaturgy and Irish drama in the twentieth century as well as for those interested in women's work in theatre and in Irish theatre in the twentieth century Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University Avery Library, 1968 The Comic Everywoman in Irish Popular Theatre Susanne Colleary, 2018-12-30 This book is a comprehensive study of comic women in performance as Irish Political Melodrama from 1890 to 1925 It maps out the performance contexts of the period such as Irish poor theatre both reflecting and complicating narratives of Irish Identity under British Rule The study investigates the melodramatic aesthetic within these contexts and goes on to analyse a selection of the melodramas by the playwrights J W Whitbread and P J Bourke In doing so the analyses makes plain the comic structures and intent that work across both character and action foregrounding comic women at the centre of the discussion Finally the book applies a practice as research dimension to the study Working through a series of workshops rehearsals and a final performance Colleary investigates comic identity and female performance through a feminist revisionist lens She ultimately argues that the formulation of the Comic Everywoman as staged Comic identity can connect beyond the theatre to her Everyday self This book is intended for those interested in theatre histories comic women and in popular performance
