Marines ,1989 On Operations Brett Friedman,2021-10-15 On Operations Operational Art and Military Disciplines traces the history of the development of military staffs and ideas on the operational level of war and operational art from the Napoleonic Wars to today viewing them through the lens of Prussia Germany the Soviet Union and the United States B A Friedman concludes that the operational level of war should be rejected as fundamentally flawed but that operational art is an accurate description of the activities of the military staff an organization developed to provide the brainpower necessary to manage the complexity of modern military operations Rather than simply serve as an intercession between levels the military staff exists as an enabler and supporting organization to tacticians and strategists alike On Operations examines the organization of military staffs which has changed little since Napoleon s time Historical examinations of the functions staffs provided to commanders and the disciplines of the staff officers themselves leads to conclusions about how best to organize staffs in the future Friedman demonstrates these ideas through case studies of historical campaigns based on the military discipline system developed

The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin,2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Assoc Prof Catherine Dossin,2015-03-28 This book challenges the perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition In her transnational and interdisciplinary study Dossin analyses changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Masterpieces of Western Art Robert Suckale,2002 This volume traces the history of painting from medieval times to modern times with a focus on each era and its major artists This volume traces the history of painting from medieval times to modern times with a focus on each era and its major artists Art and War Laura Brandon,2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura

Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the War on Terror Black Africa and the US Art World in the Early 20th Century P.
