Screening the Art World Temenuga Trifonova,2025-10-01 Screening the Art World explores the ways in which artists and the art world more generally have been represented in cinema Contributors address a rarely explored subject art in cinema rather than the art of cinema by considering films across genres historical periods and national cinemas in order to reflect on cinema s fluctuating imaginary of art and the art world The book examines the intersection of art history with history in cinema cinema s simultaneous affirmation and denigration of the idea of art as truth the dominant often contradictory ways in which artists have been represented on screen and cinematic representations of the art world s tenuous position between commercial good and cultural capital The Collected Writings of Takahiko Iimura Takahiko Iimura,2007-01-01 Taka iimura has been making films since the early 1960s His work has gone through a series of relatively clear consistent developments from 1962 to 1968 iimura was largely involved with surreal imagery with eroticism and with social criticism from 1968 through 1971 he continued to use photographic imagery but worked with it in increasingly formal ways from 1972 until 1978 he devoted himself very largely to a series of minimalist explorations of time and space During the years since iimura has been more fully involved with video than with film Scott MacDonald Although Taka was and continues to be an active part of the New York avant garde scene he always remained an enigmatic mysterious presence pursuing his own unique route through the very center of the avant garde cinema While the intensity and the fire of the American avant garde film movement inspired him and attracted him his Japanese origins contributed decisively to his uncompromising explorations of cinema s minimalist and conceptualist possibilities He has explored this direction of cinema in greater depth than anyone else Jonas Mekas Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor,Alex Ross,2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater s Guide to the literature of art history ALA 1980 Preface Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs,2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts TV by Design Lynn Spigel,2008 From the Publisher While critics have long disparaged commercial television as a vast wasteland TV has surprising links to the urbane world of modern art that stretch back to the 1950s and 60s during that era the rapid rise of commercial television coincided with dynamic new movements in the visual arts a potent combination that precipitated a major shift in the way Americans experienced the world visually TV by Design uncovers this captivating story of how modernism and network television converged and intertwined in their mutual ascent during the decades of the cold war Whereas most histories of television focus on the way older forms of entertainment were recycled for the new medium Lynn Spigel shows how TV was instrumental in introducing the public to the latest trends in art and design Abstract expressionism pop art art cinema modern architecture and cutting edge graphic design were all mined for staging techniques scenic designs and an ever growing number of commercials As a result TV helped fuel the public craze for trendy modern products such as tailfin cars and boomerang coffee tables that was vital to the burgeoning postwar economy And along with influencing the look of television many artists including Eero Saarinen Ben Shahn Saul Bass William Golden and Richard Avedon also participated in its creation as the networks put them to work designing everything from their corporate headquarters to their company cufflinks Dizzy Gillespie Ernie Kovacs Duke Ellington and Andy Warhol all stop by in this imaginative and winning account of the ways in which art television and commerce merged in the first decades of the TV age

The Essay Film Timothy Corrigan, 2011-08 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non narrative films emerged as the most interesting exciting and provocative movies made in the last twenty years Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee Bright Leaves and Agnes Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this The Best Books for Academic Libraries: Music & fine arts, 2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers

Art in the Cinema Steven Jacobs, Birgit Cleppe, Dimitrios Latsis, 2023-02-09 In the 1940s and 1950s hundreds of art documentaries were produced many of them being highly personal poetic reflexive and experimental films that offer a thrilling cinematic experience With the exception of Alain Resnais's Van Gogh 1948 Henri Georges Clouzot's Le Mystère Picasso 1956 and a few others most of them have received only scant scholarly attention This book aims to rectify this situation by discussing the most lyrical experimental and influential post war art documentaries connecting them to contemporaneous museological developments and Euro American cultural and political relationships With contributors with expertise across art history and film studies Art in the Cinema draws attention to film projects by Andr Bazin Ilya Bolotowsky Paul Haesaerts Carlo Ragghianti John Read Dudley Shaw Aston Henri Storck and Willard Van Dyke among others
