organized and our priorities set by the demands of machines and systems How can philosophy help us to make technology a servant rather than a master Technology and the Good Life uses a careful collective analysis of Albert Borgmann's controversial and influential ideas as a jumping off point from which to address questions such as these about the role and significance of technology in our lives Contributors both sympathetic and critical examine Borgmann's work especially his device paradigm apply his theories to new areas such as film agriculture design and ecological restoration and consider the place of his thought within philosophy and technology studies more generally Because this collection carefully investigates the issues at the heart of how we can take charge of life with technology it will be a landmark work not just for philosophers of technology but for students and scholars in the many disciplines concerned with science and technology studies

Reading With Purpose Erika Thulin Dawes, Katie Egan Cunningham, Grace Enriquez, Mary Ann Cappiello, 2023 From the authors of the popular blog and resource for teachers The Classroom Bookshelf this book offers a framework and teaching ideas for using recently released children's and young adult literature to build a culture of inquiry and engagement from a text first approach Reading With Purpose is designed to help K-8 teachers tap into their inner reader to make intentional text selections for their students and to create joyful and purpose driven literacy learning experiences The heart of the book is organized according to four purposes for selecting and using literature care for ourselves and one another connect with the past to understand the present closely observe the world around us and cultivate critical consciousness Each chapter includes classroom stories accessible research reasons for why this matters now and criteria for selecting for this purpose A final section provides teaching invitations that pair with suggested books but can also be used with any high quality book teachers may already have in their classrooms Book Features Builds on important work from thought leaders urging teachers to create their own reading identities to help them do so for their students Describes a simple sustainable framework teachers and teacher educators can use immediately to make more purposeful text selections Provides myriad teaching ideas narrative anecdotes from diverse classrooms student work samples and reflective questions Offers a list of recommended recently published children's and young adult literature Balanced Literacy Essentials Michelann Parr, 2012 This practical book offers a comprehensive approach to teaching literacy that puts students at the centre of the learning process

Moving History/Dancing Cultures Ann Dils, Ann Cooper Albright, 2013-06-01 This new collection of essays surveys the history of dance in an innovative and wide ranging fashion Editors Dils and Albright address the current dearth of comprehensive teaching material in the dance history field through the creation of a multifaceted non linear yet well structured and comprehensive survey of select moments in the development of both American and World dance This book is illustrated with over 50 photographs and would make an ideal text for undergraduate classes in dance ethnography criticism or appreciation as well as dance history particularly those with a cross cultural contemporary or an American focus The reader is organized into four thematic sections which allow for varied and individualized course use Thinking about Dance

History Theories and Practices World Dance Traditions America Dancing and Contemporary Dance Global Contexts The editors have structured the readings with the understanding that contemporary theory has thoroughly questioned the discursive construction of history and the resultant canonization of certain dances texts and points of view The historical readings are presented in a way that encourages thoughtful analysis and allows the opportunity for critical engagement with the text Ebook Edition Note Ebook edition note Five essays have been redacted including The Belly Dance Ancient Ritual to Cabaret Performance by Shawna Helland Epitome of Korean Folk Dance by Lee Kyong Hee Juba and American Minstrelsy by Marian Hannah Winter The Natural Body by Ann Daly and Butoh Twenty Years Ago We Were Crazy Dirty and Mad by Bonnie Sue Stein Eleven of the 41 illustrations in the book have also been redacted

Visual Data, 2009-01-01 The visual inputs we receive can be collectively called visual data Precisely how one defines visual data is a key question to ask That is one of the questions we asked each author who wrote a chapter for this book If one comes to a decision with respect to what visual data are then the next question becomes What are visual data like Then What do they mean As with any data we can collect it and compile it but if we don't have some way to bring meaning it it has little value to us The answers may not be as straightforward as one might assume at the outset The extent to which visual data permeates what we do as educators is such that it may be difficult to identify every discipline in which it emerges In this book we have tried to provide a forum for authors from a cross section of common disciplines visual arts English literacy mathematics science social science and even higher education administration
