Jones, Jr.,2011-09-29 A significant expansion of the critically acclaimed first edition Classics Illustrated A Cultural History 2d ed carries the story of the Kanter family's series of comics style adaptations of literary masterpieces from 1941 into the 21st century. This book features additional material on the 70 year history of Classics Illustrated and the careers and contributions of such artists as Alex A Blum, Lou Cameron, George Evans, Henry C Kiefer, Gray Morrow, Rudolph Palais and Louis Zansky. New chapters cover the recent Jack Lake and PaperCutz revivals of the series, the evolution of Classics collecting and the unsung role of William Kanter in advancing the fortunes of his father Albert's worldwide enterprise. Enhancing the lively account of the growth of the World's Finest Juvenile Publication are new interviews and correspondence with editor Helene Lecar, publicist Eleanor Lidofsky, artist Mort Kunstler and the founder's grandson John Buzz Kanter. Detailed appendices provide artist attributions, issue contents and for the principal Classics Illustrated related series a listing of each printing identified by month, year and highest reorder number. New U.S., Canadian and British series have been added. More than 300 illustrations, most of them new to this edition, include photographs of artists and production staff, comic book covers and interiors and a substantial number of original cover paintings and line drawings.

Food in the Arts Harlan Walker, 1999. A further volume in this series, this year discussing not so much food or its preparation as its portrayal in any number of art forms such as popular music, crime novels, film, theatre, literature and fine art. There are also some papers which concentrate on the art of food or art relating to food; an instance is the art of tissue paper, orange wrappers, a recondite but riveting item. My impression when this subject was first mooted was that all contributions would revolve around paintings and high arts. I was mistaken: there is a remarkable spread: the arrangement of 18th century desserts, cookery and the Cuban Santeria religion, drink in 19th century England, fiction, food in film, noir, the cook as artist in 18th century England, architectural food design in France and Italy, popcorn, poetry, food and eating in Bronte novels and much more. These volumes are sometimes indigestible fricassees if swallowed at once but think of them as platters of oysters: each may contain a pearl. By the finish, a bracelet at least, perhaps a necklace is the consequence.

The Life, Art and Religious Iconography of David Wright Peter French, 2016-01-14. This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking. From 1970 until 2014, David Wright produced hundreds of high quality art glass windows for Australian public, private and sacred spaces including significant national churches, chapels and synagogues, yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists. Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist, combined with a close examination of his opus, his influences, manufacturing methods and personal history, this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking.
