Kurtz, 1893 The Contemporary Art Gallery David Carrier, Darren Jones, 2016-09-23 Everyone who looks at contemporary art is familiar with galleries But visual features of these mysterious temples tend to be taken for granted The basic purpose of this book is to enliven the reader's latent knowledge of galleries including architectural motifs the intended impression that is conveyed to the visitor and human interactions within them The contemporary art world system includes artists studios art galleries homes of collectors and public art museums To comprehend art one needs to understand these settings and how it travels through them The contemporary art gallery is a store where luxury goods are sold What distinguishes it from stores selling other luxuries upscale clothing jewelry and posh cars is the nature of the merchandise While much has been written about the art this book uncovers the secretive culture of the galleries themselves The gallery is the public site where art is first seen anyone can come and look for free This store a commercial site is where
