A Companion to World History Douglas Northrop,2012-08-07 A COMPANION TOWORLD HISTORY This new volume offers insightful reflections by both leading and emerging world historians on approaches methodologies arguments and pedagogies of a sub discipline that has continued to be in flux as well as in need of defining itself as a relevant alternative to the traditional national regional or chronological fields of inquiry Choice The focus on the practicalities of how to do world history probably gives it its edge Its thirty three chapters are grouped into sections that address how to set up research projects in world history how to teach it how to get jobs in it how to frame it and how it is done in various parts of the globe It is an actual handbook in other words as opposed to a sample of exemplary work English Historical Review A Companion to World History offers a comprehensive overview of the variety of approaches and practices utilized in the field of world and global history. This state-of-the-art collection of more than 30 insightful essays, including contributions from an international cast of leading world historians and emerging scholars in the field, identifies continuing areas of contention, disagreement, and divergence while pointing out fruitful directions for further discussion and research. Themes and topics explored include the lineages and trajectories of world history, key ideas and methods employed by world historians, the teaching of world history, and how it draws upon and challenges traditional approaches and global approaches to writing world history. By considering these interwoven issues of scholarship and pedagogy from a transnational, interregional, and world/global scale, fresh insights are gained and new challenges posed. With its rich compendium of diverse viewpoints, A Companion to World History is an essential resource for the study of the world's past.

The Art of Art History Donald Preziosi, 2009-02-26 What is art history? Why, how, and where did it originate, and how have its methods changed over time? The history of art has been written and rewritten since classical antiquity. Since the foundation of the modern discipline of art history in Germany in the late eighteenth century, debates about art and its histories have intensified. Historians, philosophers, psychologists, and anthropologists, among others, have changed our notions of what art history has been, is, and might be. This anthology is a guide to understanding art history through critical reading of the field's most innovative and influential texts focusing on the past two centuries. Each section focuses on a key issue: art as history, aesthetics, form, content, and style; anthropology, meaning, and interpretation; authorship and identity; and the phenomenon of globalization. More than thirty readings from writers as diverse as Winckelmann, Kant, Mary Kelly, and Michel Foucault are brought together with editorial introductions to each topic, providing background information, bibliographies, and critical elucidations of the issues at stake. This updated and expanded edition contains sixteen newly included extracts from key thinkers in the history of art, from Giorgio Vasari to Walter Benjamin and Satya Mohanty, a new section on globalization, and also a new concluding essay from Donald Preziosi on the tasks of the art historian today.

Art Dorling Kindersley, Limited, The Art of History Allan Nevins, 1967 The Art of History J. B. Black, 2016-04-14 The first important scholarly consideration of Enlightenment historiography of the twentieth century, this book, originally published in 1926, critically examines the ideas of Voltaire, Hume, Robertson, and Gibbon with respect to the theory and practice of historiography. The substantial introduction outlines the main differences between the ideals of these literary-philosophical schools and those which prevailed among historians in the early 20th century. The author argues that history can never be devoid of philosophical and literary interest and that if it concerns itself merely with the establishment of fact, it will be a discipline of contracting horizons.

The Driving Force of Spiritual Powers in World History Rudolf Steiner,2023-05-05 7 lectures in Dornach Switzerland March 11 23 1923 CW 222 Historical happenings on Earth can be understood in their reality only when we see them as reflections of what is being enacted in the supersensible spiritual world between the beings of the higher hierarchies Rudolf Steiner March 17 1923 What is the qualitative difference between the utterance of true and untrue words Is there one How about between living and dead thoughts What is the origin of war and strife among peoples on Earth How can humanity find a right relationship to the beings of the spiritual world These are among the compelling questions addressed by Rudolf Steiner in this concise yet powerful series of lectures given in March 1923 comprising this volume of The Collected Works of Rudolf Steiner In these lectures Steiner portrays among other things the work of various hierarchical beings both in collaboration and sometimes in opposition to one another whose activity and strife in the spiritual world is mirrored in the migrations of and wars among peoples on Earth The clashes between East and West for example are thus seen in an entirely new light heralding a sea change in the approach to history No longer should events on Earth be viewed as isolated within themselves but rather as interwoven in a grand vibrant tapestry formed from the threads that connect humanity on Earth with the activity and aims of exalted spiritual beings Humanity has profound potential for both good and evil The question is whether we will be able to rise to a renewed form of cognition through which we can once again grasp living spiritual reality or we will persist in the dead intellectualized thinking so common today thinking that as Steiner points out in the final lecture of this volume if not transformed will lead to the gradual destruction of Earth itself These lectures are a tour de force that should not be neglected by any serious student of history or the future of humanity and human life more broadly Includes 10 color plates This volume is a translation from German of Die Impulsierung des weltgeschichtlichen Geschehens durch geistige M chte Rudolf Steiner Verlag 1989 GA 222 Cover Image Naval Battle of Le Panto 1571 by Luca Cambiasi 1521 1585 at the Royal Monastery of San Lorenzo de El Escorial Spain
