Art Into Theatre Performance Interviews And Documents:

Art Into Theatre Nick Kaye, 1996 Art Into Theatre Nick Kaye, 2013-11-05 Art Into Theatre investigates the processes of hybrid forms of performance developed between 1952 and 1994 through a series of interviews with key practitioners and over 80 pieces of documentation many previously unpublished of the works under discussion Ranging from the austerity of Cage's 4 33 through the inter species communication of Schneeman's Cat Scan and the experimental theatre work of Schechner Foreman and Kirby to the recent performances of Abramovic Forced Entertainment and the Wooster Group Art Into Theatre offers a fascinating collection of perspectives on the destabilizing of conventional ideas of the art object and the theatrical text Nick Kaye's introductory essay to the volume offers a useful context for the reader and each interview is preceded by an informative biographical sketch Public Art in Canada Annie G rin, James S. McLean, 2011-03-18 Arguably public art is experienced daily by more people than most offerings in galleries yet our notion of what constitutes public art is surprisingly limited Public Art in Canada broadens the critical discussion by exploring public art's varied means of engaging with public space and the public sphere Annie G rin and James S McLean have assembled contributions from new and established Canadian scholars curators and artists Each contributor enlivens our understanding of public art as a practice and its place in the social and aesthetic formation of which it is a part As a result the book provides an overview of the current debates in the field of public art that are informed by the theories and critical literature of art history communication studies cultural studies sociology and urban studies The rigorous essays and original works of art collected in this volume present a compelling demonstration of the strategies aesthetic and otherwise used by artists to elicit intellectual sensual or emotional responses that can only be obtained through artistic practices in public places Public Art in Canada is a major contribution to the study of Canadian art and culture Archaeologies of Presence Gabriella Giannachi, Nick Kaye, Michael Shanks, 2012 Archaeologies of Presence is a brilliant exploration of how the performance of presence can be understood through the relationships between performance theory and archaeological thinking Drawing together carefully commissioned contributions by leading international scholars and artists this radical new work poses a number of essential questions What are the principle signifiers of theatrical presence How is presence achieved through theatrical performance What makes a memory come alive and live again How is presence connected with identity Is presence synonymous with being in the moment What is the nature of the co presence of audience and performer Where does performance practice end and its documentation begin Co edited by performance specialists Gabriella Giannachi and Nick Kaye and archaeologist Michael Shanks Archaeologies of Presence represents an innovative and rewarding feat of interdisciplinary scholarship

Theatre/Archaeology Mike Pearson, Michael Shanks, 2005-07-08 Theatre Archaeology is a provocative challenge to disciplinary practice and intellectual boundaries It brings together radical proposals in both archaeological and performance theory to generate a startlingly original and intriguing methodological framework Edward Bond Letters: Volume 5 Ian

Stuart,2014-06-03 First Published in 1994 Edward Bond Letters Volume V contains over thirty letters and papers covering Bond s controversial views on violence and justice plays writers and directors and a postscript that is Bond s discussion of the funeral of Diana Princess of Wales The explosive content of these letters applies to Bond s plays and society as a whole Bond believes that all violence is the manifestation of an unbalanced and dangerous society As with the four preceding volumes in this collection Edward Bond is critical of present theatre but at the same time his observations are useful in indicating how theatre can be changed Bond s illustrations provide accompaniment to the letters Edward Bond Letters Edward

Bond,1994 First Published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Augustine (Big Hysteria) Anna Furse,2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 Contemporary Theatre Studies is a book series of special interest to everyone involved in theatre It consists of monographs on influential figures studies of movements and ideas in theatre as well as primary material consisting of theatre related documents performing editions of plays in English and English translations of plays from various vital theatre traditions worldwide Augustine Big Hysteria by Anna Furse first produced in Plymouth in1991 is one of the most important plays in the new feminist theatre of hysteria Elements of Architecture Mikkel Bille,Tim Flohr Sorensen,2016-02-26 Elements of Architecture explores new ways of engaging architecture in archaeology It conceives of architecture both as the physical evidence of past societies and as existing beyond the physical environment considering how people in the past have not just dwelled in buildings but have existed within them The book engages with the meeting point between these two perspectives For although archaeologists must deal with the presence and absence of physicality as a discipline which studies humans through things to understand humans they must also address the performances as well as temporal and affective impacts of these material remains The contributions in this volume investigate the way time performance and movement both physically and emotionally are central aspects of understanding architectural assemblages It is a book about the constellations of people places and things that emerge and dissolve as affective mobile performative and temporal engagements This volume juxtaposes archaeological research with perspectives from anthropology architecture cultural geography and philosophy in order to explore the kaleidoscopic intersections of elements coming together in architecture Documenting the ephemeral relational and emotional meeting points with a category of material objects that have defined much research into what it means to be human Elements of Architecture elucidates and expands upon a crucial body of evidence which allows us to explore the lives and interactions of past societies

Site-Specific Art Nick Kaye,2013-04-15 Site Specific Art charts the development of an experimental art form in an experimental way Nick Kaye traces the fascinating historical antecedents of today s installation and performance art while also assembling a unique documentation of contemporary practice around the world The book is divided into individual analyses of the themes of space materials site and frames These are interspersed by specially commissioned documentary artwork from some of the world s foremost practitioners and artists working today This interweaving of critique and creativity has never been achieved on this scale before Site Specific Art investigates the relationship of architectural theory to an understanding of contemporary site related art and performance and rigorously questions how such works can be documented The artistic processes involved are demonstrated through entirely new primary articles from Meredith Monk Station House Opera Brith Gof Forced Entertainment This volume is an astonishing contribution to debates around experimental cross arts practice Contemporary Theatres in Europe Joe Kelleher, Nicholas Ridout, 2006-09-27 Through specific examples case studies and essays by specialist writers academics and a new generation of theatre researchers this collection of specially commissioned essays looks at current theatre practices across Europe From Th atre du Soleil to Soc etas Raffaello Sanzio the authors reconsider the possibilities of theatre practice its relation to history and location and its place in Europe at the turn of the twenty first century Contemporary Theatres in Europe examines a wide range of topics including mainstream European theatre experimental performance music theatre theatre for children dance theatre Tailor made for students offering clear examples of different ways of thinking and writing about performance this is a richly detailed introduction which brings key themes to life for all students of European theatre The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Contemporary World Paul Graves-Brown, Rodney Harrison, Angela Piccini, 2013-10 This Handbook is the first comprehensive survey of a rapidly expanding sub field in archaeology the study of the present and recent past It seeks to explore the boundaries of this emerging area to develop a tool kit of concepts and methods which are applicable to this new sub field and to suggest important future trajectories for research Performativity and the Representation of Memory: Resignification, Appropriation, and Embodiment Dinis, Frederico, 2024-08-21 The age of digital culture has not only brought significant transformations in how we perceive memory history and heritage but it has also raised pressing questions about authenticity and ownership of memory The role of digital technologies in shaping collective identities is a topic of intense scrutiny Moreover contemporary societies grapple with complex issues in the politics of memory especially with the proliferation of diverse narratives and the manipulation of public spaces The book s content is therefore highly relevant offering critical reflection and scholarly analysis to these societal challenges Performativity and the Representation of Memory Resignification Appropriation and Embodiment offers a comprehensive exploration of these issues examining how contemporary practices of re enactment intersect with digital contexts to shape our understanding of memory and heritage The book analyzes the processes of memory creation and transmission in digital environments providing a nuanced understanding of how memory is constructed shared and contested in the digital age It also explores the role of arts based research and participatory practices in documenting and preserving collective memories offering insights into new forms of memory sharing and identity formation Edward Bond: Letters 3 Ian Stuart, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1997 Edward Bond Letters Volume III includes sections on the important areas of writing and translating as well as continuing to trace Bond s interest in productions of his work Focusing on The Pope s Wedding and Saved a radio production of The Fool 1990 In the Company of Men 1992 and the television plays Olly s Prison 1993 and Tuesday 1993 this lively and thought provoking volume of Edward Bond s letters provides useful background information for both the student and the general reader

Theodore Shank,2002 An update of this popular history of experimental American theater Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson,Richard Shiff,2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp s Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field s methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins s To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book s scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young A Concise Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Drama Nadine Holdsworth,Mary Luckhurst,2013-04-12 Focusing on major and emerging playwrights institutions and various theatre practices this Concise Companion examines the key issues in British and Irish theatre since 1979 Written by leading international scholars in the field this collection offers new ways of thinking about the social political and cultural contexts within which specific aspects of British and Irish theatre have emerged and explores the relationship between these contexts and the works produced It investigates why particular issues and practices have emerged as significant in the theatre of this period
