Art Of Being Black The Creation Of Black British Youth Identities:

The Art of Being Black: The Creation of Black British Youth Identities Claire E. Alexander,1996-05-02 The Art of Being Black explores how young black Britons create their cultural identities Claire Alexander rejects the common tendency to view black communities in terms of conflict or as the focus of a problem she offers a fresh exploration of the strengths and ambiguities of black youth representations as they are imagined and lived through focusing in particular on community class social life and masculinity Young black men have been typecast as hostile and culturally confused alienated from their parents and from society as folk devils the stock images of the black mugger the Rastafarian drug dealer the rioter the Yardie creating problems for society in general To get a truer view Dr Alexander spent twelve months as one of the boys in a group of young black Londoners the resulting highly personal in depth and very readable study counters the usual image of ethnic identity as fixed and immutable Drawing on contemporary debates about culture and ethnicity this book offers the close observation and informed analysis needed to bring to life theories of black cultural identity After the Imperial Turn Antoinette Burton, 2003-05-29 Essays in this collection assess the nation as a subject of disciplinary inquiry considering both its enduring relevance and its inadequacy as an analytical category for studying history literature and culture

Second-Generation Transnationalism and Roots Migration Susanne Wessendorf, 2016-04-01 Second Generation Transpationalism and Roots Migration represents the first comprehensive study of second generation transpationalism exploring the manner in which the children of migrants grow up amid travel back and forth between the country of origin and the country of immigration while at the same time forming social attachments locally with people of other origins Presenting rich empirical data gathered among second generation Italians in Switzerland and southern Italy and drawing on studies undertaken in other parts of Europe and in North America and Australia this book investigates why as adults members of the second generation maintain diverging transnational relations with some sharing their parents transnational ties and fostering social relations with co ethnics whilst others distance themselves from co ethnics and rarely visit their country of origin Yet others decide to relocate to their country of origin a phenomenon the book conceptualizes as roots migration A rigorous exploration of the complex interplay of political cultural and socio economic factors in shaping the intergenerational reproduction of transnational ties Second Generation Transnationalism and Roots Migration will appeal to sociologists anthropologists and geographers with interests in migration and ethnicity and the interrelationship of transnationalism and integration in immigration societies Individually Ourselves Sarah Winkler-Reid, 2023-11-10 Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in a London high school Individually Ourselves demonstrates how young people elaborate notions of individual personhood through their friendships and pervasive peer ethics shaped in and through relations of power and inequality By examining the interplay between ourselves and others during such a formative time of life the book addresses how individuality is produced in everyday life and how our interactions help create the person we become Creole Discourse

,2002-01-01 Creole languages are characteristically associated with a negative image How has this prestige been formed And is it as static as the diglossic situation in many anglo creolophone societies seems to suggest This volume examines socio historical and epistemological factors in the prestige formation of Caribbean English Lexicon Creoles and subjects their classification as a socio linguistic type to scrutiny and critical debate In its analysis of rich empirical data this study also demonstrates that the uses functions and negotiations of Creole within particular social and linguistic practices have shifted considerably Rather than limiting its scope to one national speech community the discussion focusses on changes of the social meaning of Creole in various discursive fields such as intergenerational changes of Creole use in the London Diaspora diachronic changes of Creole representation in written texts and diachronic changes of Creole representation in translation The study employs a discourse analytical approach drawing on linguistic models as well as Foucauldian theory of Race and Racism Les Back, John Solomos, 2022-05-17 Theories of Race and Racism A Reader provides an overview of historical and contemporary debates in this vital and ever evolving field of scholarship and research Combining contributions from seminal thinkers leading scholars and emergent voices this reader provides a critical reflection on key trends and developments in the field The contributions to this reader provide an overview of key areas of scholarship and research on questions of race and racism It provides a novel perspective by bringing together readings on the key theoretical and historical processes in this area the development of diverse theoretical viewpoints the analysis of antisemitism the role of colonialism and postcolonialism feminist perspectives on race and the articulation of new accounts of the contemporary conjuncture The contributions to this reader include classic works by the likes of W E B DuBois Stuart Hall and Frantz Fanon as well as timely pieces by contemporary scholars including Orlando Patterson Patricia Hill Collins and Paul Gilroy By bringing together a broad range of diverse accounts Theories of Race and Racism A Reader engages with various key areas of interest and is an invaluable guide for students and instructors seeking to explore issues of race and racism Nature and Culture Peter Wade, 2002-06-20 Since the controversial scientific race theories of the 1930s anthropologists have generally avoided directly addressing the issue of race viewing it as a social construct Challenging this tradition Peter Wade proposes that anthropologists can in fact play an important role in the study of race Wade is critical of contemporary theoretical studies of race formulated within the contexts of colonial history sociology and cultural studies Instead he argues for a new direction one which anthropology is well placed to explore Taking the study of race beyond Western notions of the individual Wade argues for new paradigms in social science in particular in the development of connections between race sex and gender An understanding of these issues within an anthropological context he contends is vital for defining personhood and identity Race is often defined by its reference to biology blood genes nature or essence Yet these concepts are often left unexamined Integrating material from the history of science science studies and anthropological studies of kinship and new reproductive technologies as well as from studies of race Peter Wade explores the meaning of such terms and interrogates

Black British Jazz Jason Toynbee, Catherine the relationship between nature and culture in ideas about race Tackley, 2016-04-15 Black British musicians have been making jazz since around 1920 when the genre first arrived in Britain This groundbreaking book reveals their hidden history and major contribution to the development of jazz in the UK More than this though the chapters show the importance of black British jazz in terms of musical hybridity and the cultural significance of race Decades before Steel Pulse Soul II Soul or Dizzee Rascal pushed their way into the mainstream black British musicians were playing jazz in venues up and down the country from dance halls to tiny clubs In an important sense then black British jazz demonstrates the crucial importance of musical migration in the musical history of the nation and the links between popular and avant garde forms But the volume also provides a case study in how music of the African diaspora reverberates around the world beyond the shores of the USA the engine house of global black music As such it will engage scholars of music and cultural studies not only in Britain but across the world Youth Crime and Youth Culture in the Inner City Bill Sanders, 2004-12-15 Youth Crime and Youth Culture in the Inner City offers an interpretive account of juvenile delinquency within the modern inner city an environment which is characterized by a long history of social deprivation and high rates of crime A wide range of topics are explored such as young people's motivation for frequency of and attitudes towards a variety of illegal behaviors such as street robbery burglary theft drug use drug selling and violence Why do young people commit these offences Who do they commit them against How do they feel afterwards This book attempts to answer these important theoretical questions utilizing ethnographic research collected over a seven year period and based around the London inner city borough of Lambeth The Unfinished Politics of Race Les Back, Michael Keith, Kalbir Shukra, John Solomos, 2022-12-01 The Unfinished Politics of Race argues that the past few decades have seen important transformations in the politics of race Contending that existing accounts have focused narrowly on the mainstream political sphere this study argues that there is a need to explore the role of race more widely By exploring the mainstream as well as transitional and alternative spheres of political mobilisation the authors stress the need to link the analysis of both local and national processes in order to make sense of the changing contours of racialised politics. The underlying concern of this study is to outline both a theoretical frame for an analysis of racial politics and detailed empirical accounts of different arenas of political mobilisation By exploring the unfinished politics of race this study provides a timely reminder that the position of racial and ethnic minorities in political institutions remains deeply contested EBOOK: Sports in Society Jav Coakley, Elizabeth Pike, 2014-04-16 Using a topics based approach organized around provocative questions about the interaction of sports culture and society Sports in Society presents an accessible introduction to research and theory in the sociology of sport This new edition continues the legacy of the previous editions while introducing new material and examples that bring theory to life Current debates in sports such as how youth participation can be increased or sport funding allocated have been integrated throughout the text to provide a holistic view of society An Online Learning Centre accompanies this book offering a range of lecturer support materials as well as resources and tests for students

Authentically Jewish Stuart Z. Charmé, Stuart L. Charmé, 2022-08-12 How do you know when someone or something is really authentically Jewish This book argues that what is authentically Jewish is continually changing in response to historical and cultural developments the shifting attributions of meaning that individuals make and the negotiations that occur as different groups struggle for recognition Veiled Threats Naaz Rashid, 2016-05-31 The war on terror and the Islamophobia it has unleashed have affected the lives of Muslims throughout the United Kingdom but that affect is felt differently by men and women This book looks specifically at the role of gender in the debate over terrorism and security showing how the concept of the Muslim woman has been deployed as part of government and media discussions of terrorism and revealing how such stereotyping and mischaracterization affects the varied distinct lives of countless Muslim women

Multi-ethnic Britain 2000+ Lars Eckstein, 2008 Multi Ethnic Britain 2000 provides an encompassing survey of artistic responses to the changes in the British cultural climate in the early years of the 21st century It traces topical reactions to new forms of racism and religious fundamentalism to legal as well as illegal immigration and to the threat of global terror yet it also highlights new forms of intercultural communication and convivial exchange Framed by contributions from novelists Patrick Neate and Rajeev Balasubramanyam Multi Ethnic Britain 2000 showcases how artistic representations in literature film music and the visual arts reflect and respond to social and political discourses and how they contribute to our understanding of the current trans cultural situation in Britain The contributions in this volume cover a wide range of writers such as Graham Swift Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Jackie Kay Nadeem Aslam Gautam Malkani Nirpal Dhaliwal and Monica Ali films ranging from Gurinder Chadha s Bend It Like Beckham and Bride and Prejudice to Michael Winterbottom s In This World and Alfonso Cuar n s Children of Men paintings and photography by innovative black and Asian British Artists and dubstep music Theories of Race and Ethnicity Karim Murji, John Solomos, 2015-01-08 An authoritative and cutting edge collection of theoretically grounded and empirically informed essays exploring the contemporary terrain of race and Everyday Lived Islam in Europe Nathal M. Dessing, Nadia Jeldtoft, Linda Woodhead, 2016-04-22 This book offers a racism new direction for the study of contemporary Islam by focusing on what being Muslim means in people s everyday lives It complements existing studies by focusing not on mosque going activist Muslims but on how people live out their faith in schools workplaces and homes and in dealing with problems of health wellbeing and relationships As well as offering fresh empirical studies of everyday lived Islam the book offers a new approach which calls for the study of official religion and everyday tactical religion in relation to one another It discusses what this involves the methods it requires and how it relates to existing work in Islamic Studies Higher Education and Social Class Louise Archer, Merryn Hutchings, Alistair Ross, 2005-06-27 Built on research findings and data from a wide variety of empirical and attitudinal sources this book raises timely issues about elitism expansion quality and access in higher education Children's Places Karen Fog Olwig, Eva

Gullov,2013-04-15 Children s Places examines the ways in which children and adults from their different vantage points in society negotiate the proper place of children in both social and spatial terms It looks at some of the recognised constructions of children including perspectives from cultures that do not distinguish children as a distinct category of people as well as examining contexts for them from schools and kindergartens to inner cities and war zones The result is a much needed insight into the notions of inclusion and exclusion the placement and displacement of children within generational ranks and orders and the kinds of places that children construct for themselves Based on in depth ethnographic research from Europe Asia Africa North America Australia and New Zealand A Mosaic of Believers Gerardo Marti,2009-10-26 Mosaic in southern California is one of the largest and most innovative multiethnic congregations in America Gerardo Marti shows us how this unusual church has achieved multiethnicity not by targeting specific groups but by providing multiple havens of inclusion that play down ethnic differences He reveals a congregation aiming to reconstruct evangelical theology personal identity member involvement and church governance to create an institution with greater relevance to the social reality of a new generation Ethnicity and Causal Mechanisms Michael Rutter, Marta Tienda, 2005-08-08 This book explains the role of ethnicity in group differences across social and psychopathological settings
