Art Of The Modern Age:

Art of the Modern Age Jean-Marie Schaeffer, 2023-09-26 This is a sweeping and provocative work of aesthetic theory a trenchant critique of the philosophy of art as it developed from the eighteenth century to the early twentieth century combined with a carefully reasoned plea for a new and more flexible approach to art Jean Marie Schaeffer one of France's leading aestheticians explores the writings of Kant Schlegel Novalis Hegel Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Heidegger to show that these diverse thinkers shared a common approach to art which he calls the speculative theory According to this theory art offers a special kind of intuitive quasi mystical knowledge radically different from the rational knowledge acquired by science This view encouraged theorists to consider artistic geniuses the high priests of humanity creators of works that reveal the invisible essence of the world Philosophers came to regard inexpressibility as the aim of art refused to consider second tier creations genuine art and helped to create conditions in which the genius was expected to shock puzzle and mystify the public Schaeffer shows that this speculative theory helped give birth to romanticism modernism and the avant garde and paved the way for an unfortunate divorce between art and enjoyment between high art and popular art and between artists and their public Rejecting the speculative approach Schaeffer concludes by defending a more tolerant theory of art that gives pleasure its due includes popular art tolerates less successful works and accounts for personal tastes A remarkable work Schaeffer's writing is governed by the ideals of clarity and consequence the ideas of logic truth and evidence Schaeffer is so precise and unrelenting a philosophical critic that one wonders how some of the philosophies he anatomizes here can possibly survive the operation From the foreword by Arthur C Danto

Changjiang Xing, 2024-12-30 In Hegel's aesthetics the element of speculative philosophy is always a notorious aspect that attracts the most complaints from modern art criticism. The book however justifies the intelligibility in art in light of Hegel's philosophy of metaphysics. The author explores the philosophical motivations of Hegelian aesthetics, its underlying logic, the relationship between metaphysical core and artistic expression, as well as the contemporary significance and value of metaphysicalised theories of art exemplified by Hegelian aesthetics. Through elucidating the metaphysical core implicit in Hegel's lectures on aesthetics, this book proves that the philosophical considerations of Absolute Idealism bring to art the spiritual seriousness which the Romantics lack. Ultimately, this approach reveals the broad consensus which both Hegel's aesthetics and modern philosophical hermeneutics share, thus bridging the gap between ancient and the modern philosophy of art. The book will appeal to scholars and students studying classical German philosophy, German Romantic literature, criticism, and modern art theory. Journal of the Society of Arts, 1883

Masks of the Spirit Peter T. Markman, Roberta H. Markman, 1989-01-01 Drawing on secondary works in archaeology, art history, folklore, ethnohistory, ethnography, and literature, the authors maintain that the mask is the central metaphor for the Mesoamerican concept of spiritual reality. Covers the long history of the use of the ritual mask by the peoples who created and developed the mythological tradition of Mesoamerica. Chapters: I the metaphor of the mask in Pre-Columbian Mesoamerica, the mask as the God in ritual and as metaphor, II metaphoric reflections of the cosmic order, and III the metaphor of the mask after the conquest, syncretism, the Pre-Columbian survivals, the syncretic compromise, and today's masks. Over 100 color and black and white photos. Henry Miller: The Inhuman Artist Indrek Männiste, 2013-06-20 Against skeptics Männiste argues that Miller does indeed have a philosophy of his own which underpins most of his texts. It is demonstrated that this philosophy, as a metaphysical sense of life, forms a system, the understanding of which is necessary to adequately explain even some of the most basic of Miller's ideas. Building upon his notion of the inhuman artist, Miller's philosophical foundation is revealed through his literary attacks against the metaphysical design of the modern age. It is argued that by repudiating some of the most potent elements of late modernity, such as history, modern technology, and an aesthetized view of art, Miller paves the way for overcoming Western metaphysics. Finally, it is shown that philosophically this aim is governed by Miller's idiosyncratic concept of art, in which one is led towards self-liberation through transcending the modern society and its dehumanizing pursuits. The Theosophist, 1889

Ancient Rings T.N. Pollio, 2018-11-01 Ancient finger rings made of base metals and low grade silver alloys are increasingly being unearthed and sold through a growing assortment of marketplaces worldwide. Reference material on ancient rings has focused mainly on historic and high end pieces, the precious metals and stones of royalty and the wealthy, while little has been written on the evaluation of common rings. This guide describes their composition, structure, and imagery, thus providing merchants, collectors, and researchers with a comprehensive reference on these ancient artifacts that until now have gone unexamined. Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1880
