Red Earth White Earth Will Weaver, 2008-10-14 A modern man who had put his past behind him is forced by his family to face his roots in the Minnesota prairie Weaver brings a powerful new voice to American fiction in the story of a land divided by conflict and the bonds of human passion that can never be destroyed Optioned for a CBS TV miniseries Angel De Cora, Karen Thronson, and the Art of Place Elizabeth Sutton, 2020-03-16 Angel De Cora c 1870 1919 was a Native Ho Chunk artist who received relative acclaim during her lifetime Karen Thronson 1850 1929 was a Norwegian settler housewife who created crafts and folk art in obscurity along with the other women of her small immigrant community The immigration of Thronson and her family literally maps over the De Cora family's forced migration across Wisconsin Iowa and onto the plains of Nebraska and Kansas Tracing the parallel lives of these two women artists at the turn of the twentieth century art historian Elizabeth Sutton reveals how their stories intersected and diverged in the American Midwest By examining the creations of these two artists Sutton shows how each woman produced art or handicrafts that linked her new home to her homeland Both women had to navigate and negotiate between asserting their authentic self and the expectations placed on them by others in their new locations The result is a fascinating story of two women that speaks to universal themes of Native displacement settler conquest and the connection between art and place The Heartland Chronicles Douglas E. Foley, 1995-09 An anthropologist returns to his hometown in Iowa to study relations between the white and the Mesquakis people In the process he unravels a fascinating narrative about the characters of his childhood and who they have become their relations with one another and his own relationship with his profession Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Unforgettables Charles C.
