Viewing Art with Babies

Kathy Danko-McGhee, 2023-06-06 Viewing Art with Babies demonstrates how to facilitate quality art viewing experiences with babies from as young as 2 months old. Such experiences can help to nurture early literacy and receptive language skills, sensory stimulation and early brain development. Based on the author's research with babies in New Zealand, Australia, Romania, England and the U S, the book provides the reader with information about early brain, vision, sensory and language development and the aesthetic preferences of babies. Danko McGhee provides details about the type of art that babies like, how to display art in the learning environment and how to interact with a baby when viewing art. Case studies of international museums, national museums and community agencies that have had success with engaging babies in art viewing experiences have been included in the book as a way of demonstrating how theory and research can be successfully put into practice. Viewing Art with Babies details practical ways through which museum practitioners, early childhood and community educators and parents can provide artviewing experiences in the museum, early childhood classroom or even their own home. It will be of interest to practitioners and parents around the world and those engaged in the study of museum education.

Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children Olivia N. Saracho, Bernard Spodek, 2013-01-17 The Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children is the essential reference on research on early childhood education throughout the world. This singular resource provides a comprehensive overview of important contemporary issues as well as the information necessary to make informed judgments about these issues. The field has changed significantly since the publication of the second edition and this third edition of the handbook takes care to address the entirety of vital new developments. A valuable tool for all those who work and study in the field of early childhood education, this volume addresses critical, cutting edge research on child development, curriculum, policy and research and evaluation strategies. With a multitude of new and updated chapters, The Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children 3rd Edition makes the expanding knowledge base related to early childhood education readily available and accessible.

Communities of Practice: Art, Play, and Aesthetics in Early Childhood Christopher M. Schulte, Christine Marmé Thompson, 2018-01-08

Reflecting contemporary theory and research in early art education, this volume offers a comprehensive introduction to new ways of thinking about the place of art, play and aesthetics in the lives and education of young children. Enlivened by narratives and illustrations, 16 authors offer perspectives on the lived experience of being a child and discovering the excitement of making meaning and form in the process of art, play and aesthetic inquiry.

Teaching Art to Young

Children 4-9 Rob Barnes, 2002-11 This second edition of a classic and popular book includes new chapters, figures and colour plates. The book blends practical ideas with sound principles of art education. For the teacher or trainee teacher looking for ideas, there are plenty of tested classroom examples. For those looking for firm principles of art teaching and best practice this book presents many important issues in art education with clarity and insight Based on first hand experience of teaching children the book uses many examples from the school situation Essential topics such as developing skills through using media how children draw producing original artwork developing ideas and Art and the digital image are tackled with realism and imagination An important feature is that these subjects are not seen in isolation but are purposefully linked with other areas of the curriculum The author s approach should encourage teachers to develop and think about art in the National Curriculum His writing shows a deep sympathy with children and sensitivity to the real task of teaching art to the young

Teaching Art Rhian Brynjolson,2010 This resource is written for classroom teachers art education specialists childcare workers artists working in schools parents who home school their children and school administrators It can also be used as a university textbook for Education students The book provides a framework for teaching art in a way that is integrated with regular classroom practice and mindful of current art curriculum outcomes Although the book focuses on art for primary and middle school students from pre school to grade eight Teaching Art is also useful to art specialists at the high school level who are looking for new strategies or project ideas to add to their established secondary programs Revised and expanded from the author s previous resource Art Illustration This resource integrates new developments in art education

The Ashes of a God Bain. F. W.,2019-05-15 The Ashes of the God reminds us of the legend in which Kama the Hindu Cupid is reduced to ashes by the opening of the third eye the eye of wisdom of Lord Shiwara when he tried to seduce him for his meditation with a vision of female beauty But as F W Bain reminds us there is a dynamic link between love and memory and in remembrance love rises like a living Phoenix from the ashes of oblivion
