

ART ON TRIAL

"A fine job—lucid and with sufficient background information to be accessible to a lay reader, but also packed with enough documentary material to be of highest interest to scholars. I found it difficult to stop reading once I was into it. The views themselves are well chosen to illuminate the relations of art and society—a subject very much on the historian's mind these days. Altogether, a perceptive and intelligent treatment of a subject that lends itself all too easily to sensational reporting."

—H. W. JANSON,
New York University

"A marvelous chronicle for anyone interested in seeing how art, money and personal obsessions mix—or explode."
