Baptismal Fonts Frances Altvater, 2017-06-23 Baptismal fonts were necessary to the liturgical life of the medieval Christian Baptism marked the entrance of the faithful into the right relation with the Catholic Church representing the main cultural institution of medieval society In the period between ca 1050 and ca 1220 the decoration of the font often had an important function to underscore the theology of baptism in the context of the sacraments of the Catholic Church This period witnessed a surge of concern about sacraments Just as religious thinkers attempted to delineate the sacraments and define their function in sermons and Sentence collections sculptural programs visualized the teaching of orthodox ideas for the lay audience This book looks at three areas of primary concern around baptism as a sacrament incarnation initiation and the practice of baptism within the institution of the Church and the images that embody that religious discussion Baptismal fonts have been recognized as part of the stylistic production of the Romanesque period and their iconography has been generally explored as moral and didactic Here the message of these fonts is set within a very specific history of medieval Catholic sacramental theology connecting erudite thinkers and lay users through their decoration and use Alban and St Albans Phillip Lindley, Martin Henig, 2024-11-01 This is a collection of eighteen papers presented at a conference that was held at the Hatfield Campus of the University of Hertfordshire with 122 members and guests from the United Kingdom the United States of America Germany and Norway were present The papers are on the research on various aspects of the art and architecture of the abbey at St Albans and provides an ideal forum for bringing together many aspects of the abbey's history The Architectural History of Canterbury Cathedral Francis Woodman, 2023-01-27 First Published in 1981 The Architectural History of Canterbury Cathedral traces the entire architectural history of the church from Anglo Saxon times to the present day Every major epoch of English architecture is represented from the Norman Conquest to the splendours of the Tudor age One of the main concerns has been a reconstruction of the two Norman phases Lanfranc's cathedral from 1070 and the great choir of St Anselm begun in 1096 Dr Woodman puts forward new and provocative ideas about the architecture of William of Sens and his original proposals for the new Gothic choir and Trinity Chapel The Perpendicular phases are detailed for the first time including an important reattribution and redating of the splendid pulpitum It analyses for the first time the precise areas of building completed by individual master masons and he discusses details revealed by archaeological excavations and restoration work that are no longer visible This stimulating study is a must read for scholars and researchers of British architecture architectural history and architecture in general Fin des temps et temps de la fin dans l'univers médiéval Centre universitaire d'études et de recherches médiévales d'Aix, 1993-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérisée d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine Routledge Revivals: The Illuminations of the Stavelot Bible (1978) Wayne Dynes, 2017-11-22 First published in 1978 this book offers a comprehensive study of the illuminations of the Stavelot Bible The illuminations themselves have been recognized as occupying an important place in the incipient stage of the Romanesque style in the Meuse valley The two volumes of the Bible contain no less than ninety seven illuminated initials almost half of them containing figures Wayne Dynes's study brings this into context by giving the historical background of the abbey of Stavelot and the manuscript itself and then the exegetical and illustrative tradition shaping earlier illuminated Bibles A third chapter examines the question of the assignment of the hands providing at the same time a survey of the contents This clears the way for discussions of areas of importance including the famous full page composition of Christ in Majesty and analyses key miniatures and groups of miniatures This procedure serves to clarify the overall scheme of illumination and permit a comparison with earlier achievements in the history of Bible illumination Ars Sacra New Edition Peter Lasko, 1994-01-01 The book traces the unbroken development of the Sacred Arts and their interrelationships throughout Europe from the Renovatio of the arts the Rebirth of Antiquity encouraged under the Emperor Charlemagne in the late eighth century until a renewed and fresh appreciation of the natural world the Gothic began to replace the powerful stylisations and the last vestiges of the classical tradition of the Romanesque in the early thirteenth century Medieval Art James Snyder, 1989 Text and the accompanying illustrations offer an overview of Medieval art and life Medieval Studies Everett Uberto Crosby, Charles Julian Bishko, Robert Leland Kellogg, 1983 Allegories Et Symboles Dans L'hortus Deliciarum Gérard Cames, 1971
