

THE VATICAN LIBRARY

The collection of the Vatican Library represents a timeless human story. It tells of the rise of the Renaissance through art, scholarship, and science. It tells the history of Christianity, from Catholic and Protestant, in the age of "schisms." It tells of Christianity's encounter with other peoples and faiths around the world. It tells the story of the flowering of new forms of education, art, and music. It tells the tragedy of the conflict between church power and the pursuit of new knowledge. In our Renaissance Britain, it tells a story that is truly human.
