Arte Contemporáneo En El Museo Nacional De Antropología:

Arte contemporáneo en el Museo Nacional de Antropología, 1985 Latin American and Caribbean Artists of the Modern Era Steve Shipp, 2003-01-01 This is a comprehensive reference book to more than 12 700 painters sculptors graphic artists and architects in Latin America Mexico Central America South America and the Caribbean region active during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Entries include the artists years countries and bibliographies Also included are brief biographical and stylistic notes a record of each artist s exhibitions and a list of collections where the works can be seen There are 89 photographs of selected works supplementing the entries The introduction includes brief informative background essays on the individual countries and their artists Curating and the Legacies of Colonialism in Contemporary Iberia Carlos Garrido Castellano, Bruno Leitão, 2022-06 This book provides the first systematic genealogy of postcolonial and decolonial practices emerging from Iberian art spaces The title redefines Iberian Studies through a decolonial lens It expands current debates on curating and contemporary art by exploring how cultural programming has engaged with the legacies and continuities of colonialism in contemporary European societies Intersected Identities Erica Segre, 2007 There has always been an important visual element to the construction and questioning of national identity in post Independence Mexico though one that has not always been given its due outside of the celebrated and much studied muralists Ranging from the early nineteenth century to the present from the vogue for the picturesque illustrated periodicals and the influential writings of Altamirano to a wealth of twentieth century graphic artists filmmakers and photographers this book re examines the complex variety of ways in which that visual element has operated In particular it looks at the ways in which discourses concerning ethnicity and cultural hybridity have been echoed and transformed in Mexican visual culture resulting in fields of visual discourse which are eclectic and increasingly self reflexive Entangled Heritages Olaf Kaltmeier, Mario Rufer, 2016-07-01 Relying on the concept of a shared history this book argues that we can speak of a shared heritage that is common in terms of the basic grammar of heritage and articulated histories but divided alongside the basic difference between colonizers and colonized This problematic is also evident in contemporary uses of the past The last decades were crucial to the emergence of new debates subcultures new identities hidden voices and multicultural discourse as a kind of new hegemonic platform also involving concepts of heritage and or memory Thereby we can observe a proliferation of heritage agents especially beyond the scope of the nation state This volume gets beyond a container vision of heritage that seeks to construct a diachronical continuity in a given territory Instead authors point out the relational character of heritage focusing on transnational and translocal flows and interchanges of ideas concepts and practices as well as on the creation of contact zones where the meaning of heritage is negotiated and contested Exploring the relevance of the politics of heritage and the uses of memory in the consolidation of these nation states as well as in the current disputes over resistances hidden memories undermined pasts or the politics of nostalgia this book seeks to seize the local global dimensions around heritage      National Galleries Simon Knell, 2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism      Fodor's Essential Peru Fodor's Travel
