Arte Y Documento Fundacion Espigas 19932003:

Encounters in Video Art in Latin America Elena Shtromberg, Glenn Phillips, 2023-02-14 With insightful essays and interviews this volume examines how artists have experimented with the medium of video across different regions of Latin America since the 1960s. The emergence of video art in Latin America is marked by multiple points of development across more than a dozen artistic centers over a period of more than twenty five years. When it was first introduced during the 1960s video was seen as empowering the portability of early equipment and the possibility of instant playback allowed artists to challenge and at times subvert the mainstream media. Video art in Latin America was and still is closely related to the desire for social change. Themes related to gender, ethnic and racial identity as well as the consequences of social inequality and ecological disasters have been fundamental to many artists' practices. This compendium explores the history and current state of artistic experimentation with video throughout Latin America. Departing from the relatively small body of existing scholarship in English much of which focuses on individual countries this volume approaches the topic thematically positioning video artworks from different periods and regions throughout Latin America in dialogue with each other. Organized in four broad sections Encounters Networks and Archives Memory and Crisis and Indigenous Perspectives the book's essays and interviews encourage readers to examine the medium of video across varied chronologies and geographies.

Gómez Casares y su Banana series (1907-1920) Imaginación fotográfica en postales de Costa Rica Enrique Camacho Navarro,2025-02-10 A inicios de los años setenta un joven decidido a explorar más allá de su entorno se embarca en un viaje solitario a Costa Rica. A lo largo de esta travesía no solo recorre la pintoresca San José y sus alrededores sino que también se adentra en las profundidades de la costa caribeña y las regiones más marginadas del país. En su recorrido se enfrenta a las realidades de las comunidades indígenas bribris en Ujarrás y experimenta de cerca la vida de los afrodescendientes en Puerto Limón una ciudad marcada por su propio mestizaje cultural y lingüístico. Es en este crisol de historias y culturas donde el narrador comienza a cuestionar y a profundizar en las raíces de la diversidad costarricense mientras se enfrenta a los desafíos de un viaje que le cambiará la vida. Con un relato lleno de sensaciones y descubrimientos este libro lleva al lector por los paisajes de un país en transformación mientras el narrador se asombra ante la serenidad de la naturaleza el bullicio de las ciudades y los ecos de un pasado colonial a la vez presente. Desde los contrastes de la vida cotidiana en Puerto Limón hasta el encuentro con personajes como Old Joe un conductor de carreta y brujo local el narrador teje una narración que invita a reflexionar sobre la historia la cultura y la identidad de Costa Rica. Este libro es una inmersión nica en los rincones olvidados del Caribe costarricense una región marcada tanto por su belleza inmutable como por las huellas de una profunda y compleja historia de migración y resistencia Mário de Andrade e a Argentina Patricia Artundo,2004
