Some athletes through their courage and class have broken down the barriers that have afflicted our society and sometimes affected greater social change. He became a role model for Hispanics and then for everybody when he died bringing aid to earthquake victims in Nicaragua. The Funniest People in Sports and Neighborhoods David Bruce, 2006-11 This book contains such anecdotes as these: 1. Bob Zuppke coached the football Illini for years. In a discussion of football rules, someone described a play and asked whether the officials had made the right call. Before answering, however, Mr. Zuppke asked, "Which team made the foul, Illinois or the other one?" 2. At a Westminster Dog Show in Madison Square Garden, a woman was selling an expensive coat made for dogs. Saying, "We want her dog to look as smart as madame," the saleslady held up a pink cocktail coat made out of embroidered silk with a lining of mohair. Sportswriter Robert Lipsyte asked her, "When would a dog wear that?" The saleslady replied, "After five o'clock." 3. Shannon Martin was six years old when she won an age 12 and under roping contest for which she was written up in the Roping Sports News. Because she hadn't learned to read yet, she kept saying to her father, "Come on, Dad. Read it again." Blacks at the Net Sundiata Djata, 2006-01-30 While much has been written about black triumphs in boxing, baseball and other sports, little has been said of similar accomplishments in tennis. In this book, the first in a series, the author is the first volume dedicated to that subject. Sundiata Djata more than cites facts and figures; he explores obstacles to such performance, such as the discrimination that kept blacks out of pro tennis for decades. He examines the role that this white sport traditionally played in the black community. And he provides keen insights into the politics of professional sports and the challenges faced by today's black players. Drawing on original and published interviews, life writings and newspaper articles, the author offers an in-depth look at black participation in tennis from the first courts in Tuskegee in 1880 to players Reginald Weir and Gerald Norman Jr. who challenged racism in the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association in the 1920s; from Harlem teen Bob Ryland's historic match with two white women in 1944 to the achievements of acclaimed later stars like Althea Gibson, Arthur Ashe, Yannick Noah and Venus and Serena Williams. Thoroughly researched and comprehensive in scope, the work's eventual two volumes will cover identity and black tennis in aboriginal Australia, North and South Africa, the Caribbean and the Americas. It is an ideal read for tennis players, sports historians, readers of black history and/or black sports figures and all who are interested in the sport. Serena Williams and Alexis Ohanian Alexis Burling, 2019-07-15 Serena Williams and Alexis Ohanian are two of the most inspiring, trend-setting and accomplished individuals in the world today.
