The Eight and American Modernisms Peter John Brownlee, 2009 Frustrated by the art world's elitism and the snobbish exclusivity of the academy's juries eight American painters united in 1908 to upend the established norms and stage their own exhibition of modernist art Led by the charismatic Robert Henri they came to be known as The Eight and their two week show at New York's Macbeth Galleries drew a multitude of visitors who crowded into the galleries to critique the much publicized work of these revolutionary artists Their paintings of urban scenes marked a significant departure from the prevailing style which emphasized physical and natural beauty and met with critical success The established chronicle maintains that the Eight were rendered dysfunctional and artistically irrelevant after European modernism arrived in the United States at the 1913 Armory Show The Eight and American Modernisms revises this account and reevaluates these respected artists careers including their late works Accompanying a traveling exhibition this lushly illustrated volume challenges the accepted wisdom about the evolution of the modernist style In addition to Henri The Eight included William Glackens George Luks Everett Shinn John French Sloan Arthur B Davies Ernest Lawson and Maurice Prendergast Villa Clare William Rawson Smith, 2006 Before there was Atlanta's High Museum of Art there was Villa Clare J J Haverty's Mediterranean style home on Peachtree Street During the heyday of Villa Clare in the 1920s and 1930s Haverty regularly opened the doors on Sunday afternoons to the public to enjoy his collection of more than 100 paintings and sculptures by artists including Childe Hassam William Merritt Chase Helen Maria Turner and Henry Ossawa Tanner In telling the previously untold story of J J Harverty and his collection Villa Clare provides a unique new perspective on the story of early Atlanta BOOK JACKET American Imagination and Symbolist Painting Charles C.
