The Bassett Report Isabel Bassett, 1985      Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who's Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who's Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment or affiliation for easy reference Published every two years Who's Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women

Women, Work, and Coping Bonita C. Long, Sharon E. Kahn, 1993-10-25 Written by feminists and other researchers from the disciplines of psychology sociology anthropology and management science the fourteen essays in this collection are about women's experience of paid work and women's ways of coping with employment stress The opening essays highlight the tremendous social and cultural changes that have compelled women to develop new coping strategies Several contributing authors examine specific workplace structures and describe women's experiences in different occupational contexts whether hostile or hospitable Shifting from a structural to an individual perspective other contributors deal with psychosocial factors such as gender differences that have been found to moderate stress and enhance the coping process They analyse individual experiences with work related stressors focusing on the mediating effects of cognitive appraisals The concluding chapters provide a critique of research methods commonly used to study work related stress and coping and a review by the editors of the many factors and relationships which influence women's ways of coping with employment stress Women Work and Coping contains contributions by Nina Colwill Bruce E Compas Esther R Greenglass Barbara Gutek Catherine A Heaney Sharon E Kahn Ronald C Kessler Karen Korabik Bonita C Long Judi Marshall Diana L Mawson Lisa M McDonald Pamela G Orosan Hazel M Rosin Craig A Smith Anne Statham Allison Tom Elaine Wethington and Lois M Verbrugge

The Dominion of Women Wayne Fraser, 1991-01-30 Wayne Fraser's examination of the works of eighteen women writers in English Canada's history demonstrates how Canadian women's literature provides rich insight into the social and political development of the country Fraser approaches the subject as a literary critic arguing that these narratives were constructed within a certain social and political framework that resulted in a body of literature whose themes focus on the relationship of the individual to the larger community an essentially feminine orientation The study arranged chronologically from colonial times through the 1980s parallels women's personal experiences with Canada's political development In depth analyses of works of such notables as Frances Brooke Ethel Wilson and Margaret Atwood support Fraser's contention that the literature as a forum where women voiced their personal concerns regarding marriage colonialism independence and feminism reflects and comments on Canada's political identity as a country with a continuing commitment to compromise cooperation and international peace A bibliography and general subject index complete this volume which will furnish historians and critics of women's literature with a new understanding of the topic

The Journal of Educational Thought, 1986

The Double Ghetto Pat Armstrong, Hugh Armstrong, 1993 This definitive study on women is now updated for the 90s Sociologists Pat and Hugh Armstrong hoped that enough would change in the nature and conditions of women's work that an entirely new book would be necessary and they could abandon the old framework on the division of labour by sex But their hopes have not been realized and a new edition not only seems useful but overdue The Double Ghetto surveys the work women do at home and on the job to analyze why work in this country is still segregated by sex In the third edition the authors devote new space to postmodernist theory and include new material on the differences between women emphasizing race but including region and age More attention is also given to the casualization of labour due to the dramatic expansion of part time work In easy to read language The Double Ghetto explores a vital part of the socially structured life to Canadian women using the most up to date 1993 statistics and scholarly research available
