Crime and Punishment in Early Maryland Raphael Semmes,1996-04 The subject of this book pertains to events often unpleasant in the domestic lives of the 17th century Maryland colonists publisher s catalog description 1938 Marylander Edward Erbery called members of the colony s proprietary assembly rogues and puppies he was tied to an apple tree and received thirty nine lashes Jacob Lumbrozo a Maryland Jew who suggested Christ s miracles were done by magic was imprisoned indefinitely escaping execution only by the governor s pardon Rebecca Fowler was accused of using witchcraft to cause her Calvert County neighbors to feel very much the worse she was hanged on October 9 1685 Mrs Thomas Ward whipped a runaway maidservant with a peachtree rod then rubbed salt into the girl s wounds the girl died and Mrs Ward was fined three hundred pounds of tobacco Now available in a new paperback edition

Raphael Semmes's classic Crime and Punishment in Colonial Maryland contains a wealth of colorful though often disturbing details about the law and lawbreakers in 17th century Maryland. Semmes explains for instance that theft was rare among early Marylanders if only because the colonists had little worth stealing. But what the colonists valued they endeavored to protect. A 1662 law punished a person twice convicted of hog stealing by branding an H on his shoulder. Widely perceived as being too lenient, the law was amended four years later: first offense H on the forehead. Men caught in adultery were often fined; women were often whipped. And knowing how to swim was so rare among 17th century women that suggesting one could do so was tantamount to accusing her of witchcraft. A minister's son who claimed as much was sued by the woman for defamation of character. Crime and Punishment in Colonial Maryland offers fascinating and detailed case histories on such crimes as theft, libel, assault and homicide as well as on adultery, profanity, drunkenness and witchcraft. It also explores long forgotten aspects of old English law such as theftbote, an early form of victim compensation; deodand, an animal or article which having caused the death of a human being was forfeited to the Crown for pious uses; and the blood test for murderers.

Punishments in England; to which are Added, Full Tables of Convictions, Executions, Etc. Humphry William WOOLRYCH, 1832. Regatta De Mort: The Mad God Ranty McRanterson, 2018-04-10

To do honor to a strange and mad god any book about him must be strange and mad too. This book is a Dionysian tale, part fact, part fiction. Its purpose is to disorient, to disrupt, to open the mind to radical new possibilities. Do you want to be visited by strangeness and madness, to have your mind expanded as never before? Then let the insanity begin. Welcome to the Extraordinary World, the sacred space, the space where the most solemn and ineffable quest takes place, where humans at last encounter the gods face to face. Are you brave enough? Are you crazy enough? The sacred is never found in the ordinary, familiar, normal world. Normal people cannot show you it. Only the special ones can enter it. When they return they are at a higher level. Only then are they qualified to say sacred things, extraordinary things, the things that none of your neighbors could ever tell you.
