Visuals such as symbols and images in addition to conventional textual forms seem to have a unique potential for the study of a collective identity of a community and its traditions as well as its narratives and at the same time in the expression of one's ideas, impressions and ideologies in a specific socio-political space. Visual analysis thus has become a well-established domain of investigations focusing on how various forms of text external semiotic resources such as culturally specific symbols including patterns and colors make it possible for scholars to account for and thus demystify discursive symbols in a wider social and public space.

Flags Identity Memory Critiquing the Public Narrative through Colors as an international and interdisciplinary volume is a unique attempt to demystify the thinking, values, assumptions and ideologies of specific nations and their communities by analyzing their choice of specific patterns and colors represented in a national flag. It offers a comprehensive and insightful range of studies of visual and hidden discursive processes to understand social narratives through patterns of colours in the choice of national flags and in turn to understand their semiotic, philosophical and legal cultures and traditions. Wagner and Marusek provide an exclusive opportunity to reflect on the functions, roles and limits of visual and discursive representations. This volume will be a uniquely resourceful addition to the study of semiotics of colours and flags in particular how nations and communities represent their relationship between ideology and pragmatism in the repository of identity, knowledge and history.

In all societies, colors play a critical function in the realm of symbolism. Nation societies perceive great significance in the colors of flags and national emblems. Colors constitute in other words sign systems of national identity. The relation of color codes and their relation to concepts of nationhood and its related narratives is the theme of this marvelous and eye-opening collection of studies. Flags are mini-texts on the inherent values and core concepts that a nation espouses and for this reason the colors that they bear can be read at many levels from the purely representational to the inherently cultural. Written by experts in various fields, this interdisciplinary anthology will be of interest to anyone in the humanities, social sciences, jurisprudence, narratology, political science and semiotics. It will show how a seemingly decorative aspect of nationhood, the colors on flags, tells a much deeper story about the human condition.

Certaines apparences sont trompeuses. Heureusement, C'est moi qui viens aider pour les travaux. Trop sexy. Trop t'n breux. L'homme qui frappe la porte de Sarah ce jour-là est aussi fascinant et dangereux que la tempête de neige qui s'annonce sur le Lac Supérieur. Aussitôt il l'attire, aussitôt elle se ressaisit. Une relation houleuse avec une tête brève comme le père de son fils, elle n'en veut plus. C'est aussi pour cela qu'elle est venue s'installer ici dans cette maison victorienne sereine au bord de l'eau. Et pour ne plus donner son fils que des exemples positifs. Mais la neige tombe dru et la maison a besoin de sérieux travaux. Alors, en dépit de ses reticences, Sarah laisse entrer le loup dans sa bergerie.
