Blind Owl:

The Blind Owl Sadeq Hedayat, 1971 Esotericism and Deviance, 2024-02-06 The concept of deviance has been central to the academic study of Western esotericism since its inception This book being the proceedings of the 6th Biennial Conference of the European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism ESSWE explores the relationship between esotericism and various forms of deviance as concept category and practice from antiquity until late modernity The volume is the first to combine incisive conceptual explorations of the concept of deviance and how it informs and challenges the study of esotericism alongside a wide range of empirically grounded case discussions Middle Eastern Gothics Karen Grumberg, 2022-12-15 The chapters in this study cover the four major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish and are authored by experts in these literatures who read and engage with these texts in their original languages Their intimate knowledge of the linguistic and cultural contexts of the works they analyse provides readers access to nuances in the texts and ultimately to a more profound understanding of them This is the first cohesive collection addressing the Gothic in the geographic linguistic context of the Middle East region There has been increased interest not only in global iterations of the Gothic but also in Middle Eastern writing particularly when it intersects with the Gothic i e Frankenstein in Baghdad The Introduction of the volume offers a new theorisation of Gothic literature proposing the transnational region as a frame for reading literary texts that cross national and linguistic boundaries Blind Owl Sadeq Hedayat, 2022-04-12 A new English translation of one of the most important controversial Iranian novels of the twentieth century Winner of the 2023 Lois Roth Persian Translation Award A Penguin Classic Written by one of the greatest Iranian writers of the twentieth century Blind Owl tells a two part story of an isolated narrator with a fragile relationship with time and reality In first person the narrator offers a string of hazy dreamlike recollections fueled by opium and alcohol He spends time painting the exact same scene on the covers of pen cases an old man wearing a cape and turban sitting under a cypress tree separated by a small stream from a beautiful woman in black who offers him a water lily In a one page transition the reader finds the narrator covered in blood and waiting for the police to arrest him In part two readers glimpse the grim realities that unlock the mysteries of the first part In a new translation that reflects Hedayat's conversational confessional tone Blind Owl joins the ranks of classics by Edgar Allan Poe Franz Kafka and Fyodor Dostoyevsky that explore the dark recesses of the human psyche Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg, 2020-06-26 Maps of Empire examines how literature was affected by the decay and break up of old models of imperial administration in the mid twentieth century Sadeq Hedayat Homa Katouzian, 2007-09-13 This edited collection brings together the foremost authorities on Sadeq Hedayat's work A Comparative Guide to Sartrean and Deleuzian Selves in Modernist and Post-Modernist Fiction Onur Ekler, 2021-07-12 This book provides insights into the maze of know thyself through a carefully detailed comparative study of the Sartrean no self and the Deleuzian rhizomic self It is informative argumentative and rich in literary context and mainly focuses on the shift in the notion of self from Sartre's elegiac suicidal and nihilistic tone seen pervasively in modernist fiction to the celebratory Deleuzian self in postmodernist fiction To trace this shift the book presents a comparative analysis of selected novels showing that authors like Bellow and Atwood have adopted a more positive attitude toward the self similar to the Deleuzian rhizomic self while authors like Hedayat and Beckett have more reductionist decadent nihilistic views on the self like the Sartrean no self Moreover as argued in the cases of the protagonists in the selected novels this book further asserts that the Deleuzian rhizomic self might be seen as a possible alternative to help one survive in times of crisis in contrast to the nihilistic Sartrean no self

Linguacultural Hybridity and Translation Zahra Reyhani Monfared, 2024-10-28 In an increasingly globalised world the cultures of Orient and Occident are no longer firmly separated This hybridity is also a part of literature a concept which needs to be explored in Translation Studies This study examines its evolution across language culture literature and translation It introduces a sociolinguistic approach for studying marginalized hybrid texts and their translations into English focusing on the power dynamics that dichotomize the world into First Third worlds The author examines how sociological factors in central societies affect the acceptance and recognition of marginalized literary works within Western literary circles and world literature The study analyses classical and modern Persian literature It highlights the double voicedness in these texts By illustrating how hybrid elements from Rumi's mystical poems and Hedayat's surrealist prose are re-created in their English translations it elevates the analysis of hybrid elements to a linguacultural level
