Blind Voices Tom Reamy, 1981-01-01      You Who Cross My Path Erez Bitton, 2015-11-16 This first US publication of Erez Bitton one of Israel's most celebrated poets recalls the fate of Moroccan Jewish culture with poems both evocative and pure. Considered the founding father of Mizrahi Israeli poetry, a major tradition in the history of Hebrew poetry, Bitton's bilingual collection dramatically expands the scope of biographical experience and memory, ultimately resurrecting a vanishing world and culture. Preliminary Background Words: My mother my mother from a village of shrubs green of a different green From a bird's nest producing milk sweeter than sweet From a nightingale's cradle of a thousand Arabian nights My mother my mother who staved off evil with her middle fingers with beating her chest on behalf of all mothers My father my father who delved into worlds who sanctified the Sabbath with pure Araq who was most practiced in synagogue traditions And I having distanced myself deep into my heart would recite when all were asleep short Bach masses deep into my heart in Jewish Moroccan. Erez Bitton was born in 1942 to Moroccan parents in Oran, Algeria, and emigrated to Israel in 1948. Blinded by a stray hand grenade in Lod, he spent his childhood in Jerusalem's School for the Blind. He is considered the founding father of Mizrahi poetry in Israel, the first poet to take on the conflict between North African immigrants and the Ashkenazi society, and the first to use Judeo-Arabic dialect in his poetry. His most recent award is the Bialik Lifetime Achievement Award 2014.

Voice and Discourse in the Irish Context Diana Villanueva Romero, Carolina P. Amador-Moreno, Manuel Sánchez García, 2018-02-13 This book examines the intersection of culture and language in Ireland and Irish contexts. The editors take an interdisciplinary approach, exploring the ways in which culture, identity, and meaning-making are constructed and performed through a variety of voices and discourses. This edited collection analyses the work of well-known Irish authors such as Beckett, Joyce, and G. B. Shaw, combining new methodologies with more traditional approaches to the study of literary discourse and style. Over the course of the volume, the contributors also discuss how Irish voices are received in translation and how marginal voices are portrayed in the Irish mediascape. This dynamic book brings together a multitude of contrasting perspectives and is sure to appeal to students and scholars of Irish literature, migration studies, discourse analysis, translation studies, and dialectology. Blind Voices, 2007      A Voice for Justice Seth Kaper-Dale, 2013-11-28 In the decade after 9/11, Rev. Seth Kaper-Dale did what preachers were doing all across America: he entered the pulpit and tried to claim Jesus Christ as the risen one who is ushering in a renewed and restored kingdom, even as it seemed that so many nations and special interest groups were claiming power and authority. Over the course of a decade, many of the sermons directly addressed the great issues through reflection on the biblical narrative. Sometimes that interaction resulted in the congregation being moved by faith to enter the fray and to address issues such as war, natural disasters, sexual orientation, economic disparity, immigration reform, interfaith matters, and ecological disaster. In short, when the Bible met the big issues in congregational space and time, the church was transformed in spirit and made ready for real action. In thirty-four sermons that go from pre-emptive war to the Arab Spring Seth insists that nothing that happens in real history lies outside the realm of theological reflection and that there is nothing a congregation cannot delve into once it has seen why the particular kingdom message of Jesus Christ is stronger than any other power
