Blood And Nation The European Aesthetics Of Race:

Blood and Nation Uli Linke, 1999 Throughout its history Europe has been marked by xenophobia and intolerance that has often led to violent intergroup conflicts Uli Linke explores how extensions of blood imagery not only gave expression to this xenophobia but helped to shape European ideas about race and difference ideas that have led and continue to lead to violence

Race, Ethnicity, and Nation Peter Wade, 2007-12-01 Race ethnicity and nation are all intimately linked to family and kinship yet these links deserve closer attention than they usually get in social science above all when family and kinship are changing rapidly in the context of genomic and biotechnological revolutions Drawing on data from assisted reproduction transnational adoption mixed race families Basque identity politics and post Soviet nation building this volume provides new and challenging ways to understand race ethnicity and nation New Geographies of Race and Racism

Caroline Bressey, 2016-04-29 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racialisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis Jewish Blood Mitchell Hart, 2009-06-02 This book provides a multidisciplinary examination of the age old issue of Jewish blood in all its various manifestations both real and imagined It provides historical religious and cultural examples ranging from the Blood Libel through to the poetry of Uri Zvi Greenberg

Trials of the Diaspora Anthony Julius, 2012-02-09 The first ever comprehensive history of anti-Semitism in England from medieval murder and expulsion through to contemporary forms of anti-Zionism in the 21st century A Companion to Psychological Anthropology

Conerly Casey, Robert B. Edgerton, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides the first definitive overview of psychocultural anthropology a subject that focuses on cultural psychological and social interrelations across cultures Brings together original essays by leading scholars in the field Offers an in depth exploration of the concepts and topics that have emerged through contemporary ethnographic work and the processes of global change Key issues range from studies of consciousness and time emotion cognition dreaming and memory to the lingering effects of racism and ethnocentrism violence identity and subjectivity The Color of Citizenship Diego A. von Vacano, 2014-03 Looking to the way that race has been conceived through the tradition of Latin American political thought The Color of Citizenship examines the centrality of race in the making of modern citizenship It posits race as synthetic dynamic and fluid a concept that will have methodological historical and normative value for understanding race in other diverse societies

The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen

NatashaT. Seaman,2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master's simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio's motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen's appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen's largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen's paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio's Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio's paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen's works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist's response to them The Vampire Nick Groom,2018-10-30 An authoritative new history of the vampire two hundred years after it first appeared on the literary scene Published to mark the bicentenary of John Polidori's publication of The Vampyre Nick Groom's detailed new account illuminates the complex history of the iconic creature The vampire first came to public prominence in the early eighteenth century when Enlightenment science collided with Eastern European folklore and apparently verified outbreaks of vampirism capturing the attention of medical researchers political commentators social theorists theologians and philosophers Groom accordingly traces the vampire from its role as a monster embodying humankind's fears to that of an unlikely hero for the marginalized and excluded in the twenty first century Drawing on literary and artistic representations as well as medical forensic empirical and sociopolitical perspectives this rich and eerie history presents the vampire as a strikingly complex being that has been used to express the traumas and contradictions of the human condition Defending the Rights of Others Carole Fink,2006-11-02 This study of the period from 1878 to 1938 explores international minority protections Blood Will Tell Katherine Ellinghaus,2022-05 A study of the role blood quantum played in the assimilation period between 1887 and 1934 in the United States Ancestors and Relatives Eviatar Zerubavel,2012-01-26 Noted social scientist Eviatar Zerubavel casts a critical eye on how we trace our past individually and collectively arguing that rather than simply find out who our ancestors are from genetics or history we actually create the stories that make them our ancestors Sonic Icons Sarah Bakker Kellogg,2024-11-05 A vivid artfully crafted and deeply hopeful account of one community's struggle to rediscover and reinvent itself after a century of genocidal loss dispossession and displacement To the extent that Middle Eastern Christians register in Euro American political imaginaries they are usually invoked to justify Western military intervention into countries like Iraq or Syria or as an exemption to anti Islamic immigration policies because of an assumption that their Christianity makes them easily assimilable in the so called Judeo Christian West Using the tools of multisensory ethnography Sonic Icons uncovers how these views work against the very communities they are meant to benefit Through long term fieldwork in the Netherlands among Syriac Orthodox Christians also known as Assyrians Aramaeans and Syriacs Bakker Kellogg reveals how they intertwine religious practice with political activism to save Syriac Christianity from the twin threats of political violence in the Middle East and cultural assimilation in Europe In a historical moment when much of their tradition has been forgotten or destroyed their story of self discovery is one of survival and reinvention By reviving the late antique Syriac liturgical tradition known as the Daughters and Sons of the Covenant they seek a complex form of recognition for what they understand to be the ethical core of Christian kinship in an ethnic as well as in a religious sense despite living in societies that do not recognize this unhyphenated form of ethnoreligiosity as a politically legitimate mode of public identity Drawing on both theological and linguistic understandings of the icon Sonic Icons rethinks foundational theoretical accounts of ethnicization racialization and secularization by examining how kinship gets made claimed and named in the global politics of minority recognition The icon as a site of communicative and reproductive power illuminates how these processes are shaped by religious histories of struggle for sovereignty over the reproductive future

Ibss: Anthropology: 1999 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences

The Past in Exile Birgit Bock-Luna,2007 In this study of identity politics memory and long distance nationalism among Serbian migrants in California the author examines the complicated ways in which visions of the past are used to form Diaspora subjects and make claims to the homeland in the present Drawing on extended fieldwork in the San Francisco Bay Area community she shows how the Yugoslav wars generated a revaluation Serbian history and personal life stories resulting in the strengthening of ethnic identity Nevertheless strategies for dealing with rupture and change also included contestation of exile nationalism

Imagining Postcommunism Beverly Ann James,2005 Although the 1956 Hungarian uprising failed to liberate the country from Soviet domination it became a symbol of freedom for people throughout Eastern Europe and beyond In Imagining Postcommunism Beverly A James demonstrates how 1956 became a foundational myth according to which the bloody events of that fall led to the ceremonial reburial of the martyred prime minister Imre Nagy in 1989 free elections in 1990 and the withdrawal of the last Soviet soldiers on June 19 1991 She shows how museums monuments and holiday rituals have aided the construction of a new Hungary through the reclamation and expression of competing memories of the critical events of 1956 Surveying the array of ceremonies exhibitions and memorials commemorating the revolution and its heroes James invites leaders to consider the difference between the communist regime s master narrative of 1956 with its smug false unity and the multiple polemical stories woven by competing political forces in postcommunist Hungary

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North

America Inc All Rights Reserved Medicine, Religion, and the Body Elizabeth Burns Coleman, Kevin White, 2010 This book explores the ways in which the body is sacred in Western medicine as well as how this idea is played out in questions of life and death of the autopsy and of the meanings attributed to illnesses and disease Ritual and religious modifications to and limitations on what may be done to the body raise cross cultural issues of great complexity philosophically and theologically as well as sociologically within medicine and for health care practitioners but also as a matter of primary concern for the patient The book explores the ways in which medicine organises the moral and the immoral the sacred and the profane how it mediates cultural concepts of the sacred of the body of blood and of life and death An Eye on Race John Beusterien, 2006 Racism in the modern nation state is based on a Continental and an American model In the Continental model the racist differentiates the raced individual by religion Because this raced individual is indistinguishable from the racist a narrative is written to see that individual In turn in the American model the racist differentiates the raced individual based on skin color Because the sign of difference is obvious no story is written to justify racist thinking By 1550 both models form part of imperial thinking in the Iberian world system An Eye on Race Perspectives from Theater in Imperial Spain describes these models at work in imperial Spanish theater The study reveals how the display of blood in drama serves the Continental model and how the display of skin color serves the American model It also elucidates how Miguel de Cervantes celebrates a subaltern aesthetic as he discards both racial paradigms John Beusterien is Associate Professor of Spanish at Texas Tech University German History from the Margins Neil Gregor, Nils Roemer, Mark Roseman, 2006-06-14 German History from the Margins offers new ways of thinking about ethnic and religious minorities and other outsiders in modern German history Many established paradigms of German history are challenged by the contributors new and often provocative findings including evidence of the striking cosmopolitanism of Germany's 19th century eastern border communities German Jewry's sophisticated appropriation of the discourse of tribe and race the unexpected absence of antisemitism in Weimar's campaign against smut the Nazi embrace of purportedly Jewish sexual behavior and post war West Germany's struggles with ethnic and racial minorities despite its avowed liberalism Germany's minorities have always been active partners in defining what it is to be German and even after 1945 despite the legacy of the Nazis murderous destructiveness German society continues to be characterized by ethnic and cultural diversity Multicultural Dialogue Randi Gressgård, 2012-05 As cross cultural migration increases democratic states face a particular challenge how to grant equal rights and dignity to individuals while recognizing cultural distinctiveness In response to the greater number of ethnic and religious minority groups state policies seem to focus on managing cultural differences through planned pluralism This book explores the dilemmas paradoxes and conflicts that emerge when differences are managed within this conceptual framework After a critical investigation of the perceived logic of identity indicative of Western nation states and at the root of their pluralistic intentions the author takes issue with both universalist notions of equality and cultural relativist notions of distinctiveness

However without identity is it possible to participate in dialogue and form communities Is there a way out of this impasse The book argues in favor of communities based on nonidentitarian difference developed and maintained through open and critical dialogue
